REBELS BARRED.

No Joint Occupation of Manila With Them.

SUCH INSTRUCTIONS SENT.

Merritt and Dewey Sent a Message Inquiring What to Do.

WERE TOLD TO TREAT ALL ALIKE.

Given Orders to Enforce Law and Order and to Deal the Same With All Law-Abiding Citizens—Insurgents and Spaniards on the Same Footing—It Is Thought Aguinaldo May Have Demanded the Right to Enter and Help Occupy Manila.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The two American commanders at Manila, Admiral Dewey and Major General Merritt, united in a joint dispatch, which was received here late yesterday afternoon, asking for instructions as to the manner of dealing with the various elements, particularly the insurgents, now that the city was occupied by the American forces. After a conference at the White House, in which Secretary Alger and Acting Secretary Allen participated, instructions were sent to the two American commanders. The text of the request for instructions and of the answer was not made public, but Secretary Alger summed up the instructions substantially as follows:

"The instructions are to enforce law and order, and to treat all law-abiding citizens alike." The instructions are practically the same as those sent Tuesday night to General Lawton. The latter order specifically stated that the insurgents must recognize the military occupation and authority of the United States and the cessation of hostilities proclaimed by this government. Doubtless the same rule is being applied to the insurgents under Aguinaldo, although it was not officially stated that such specific orders were made. It is said the joint dispatch from Dewey and Merritt did not in terms refer to Aguinaldo, nor did the instructions mention the insurgent leader by name. It is well understood, however, that the desire of the American commanders was to have instructions on the manner of dealing with the large and menacing forces of insurgents under Aguinaldo, who have surrounded Manila for many weeks and who it is thought may or have demanded the right to occupy the city with the American forces as the Cuban insurgents did at Santiago.

It had been thought in some quarters here that the showing heretofore made by the insurgents would lead to their receiving a certain amount of recognition, in the way of joint action between the United States forces and those of the insurgents, when the city was occupied. But the instructions sent last night are based on occupation by the United States alone, and as a high administration official summed up the situation:

"There shall be no joint action, except between Merritt and Dewey. They will maintain law and order and will treat insurgents and Spaniards alike, requiring all to observe peace and order."

THE MANGROVE'S FIGHT.

A Wonder the Little Vessel Was Not Wrecked by Spanish Shots In Caibarien Harbor.

KEY WEST, Aug. 18.—Further details have been received here as to the bombardment of the port of Caibarien, on the north coast of the province of Santa Clara, Cuba, last Sunday by the Mangrove.

The Mangrove left here last week to protect the landing of an expedition under Colonel Bozas, which had gone ahead on the schooners Adams and Delic. When she reached Santa Clara Key, near Caibarien, she found the Cuban party had safely disembarked, but feared the advance because of the presence of the Spanish gunboat Hernan Cortes and a smaller gunboat.

On Saturday afternoon the Mangrove anchored at Key Francis, just outside Caibarien, and as she lay there the Hernan Cortes came out and ran around the key to get a peer at her, scurrying back into the harbor as soon as she saw she was discovered. The Mangrove followed as far as the shoal water would permit.

The next morning Captain Stuart boldly entered the harbor. The Hernan Cortes was anchored near the shore. The small gunboat lay at the wharf.

The Hernan Cortes carried two 4.7-inch guns and four 1-pounders, while her smaller companion was armed with three 1-pounders and a Hotchkiss rapid-fire gun. Ashore were several 1-pound field pieces, while the Spanish troops were armed with Mauser rifles.

The Mangrove, whose entire battery consists of only two 6-pounders, worked into a range of 2,000 yards. The channel was so narrow that only one gun could be fired at a time.

Plague Again Epidemic.

BOMBAY, Aug. 18.—The bubonic plague is again epidemic. There were 103 deaths officially reported last week.

A hot fire was poured at the American boat. Five or six shots fell on the Hernan Cortes' deck between the bow gun and amidships, scattering a body of men. Some of the latter must have been killed, although the Spaniards later denied that they suffered any loss.

Soon the Spaniards got the Mangrove's range and a veritable avalanche of shot and shell was hurled at her. It was nothing less than a miracle that her loss of life was not heavy.

In the midst of this, a boat with a flag of truce came out, bearing the news of the signing of the peace protocol.

Shafter Reported the Turning Over of Baracoa and Sagua De Tenamo to American Jurisdiction.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The war department yesterday received the following:

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Aug. 17.

Adjutant General Washington:

"Major Miley has just returned from Baracoa and Sagua de Tenamo. At the two places there were 1,756 officers and men surrendered, 2,321 stands of arms and 413,000 rounds of ammunition, 5 Krupp guns, ranging in caliber from 5 inches down to 2 inches. Troops were very short of food, but 15 days' rations were given them by Major Miley and a large amount of Red Cross supplies landed at the same time at both places.

These troops knew nothing whatever of the destruction of Cervera's fleet, the fall of Santiago or any later events. They accepted the situation, however, and appeared to be glad at the opportunity of getting home.

"Major Miley states that on the door of the commanding officer was posted a bulletin purporting to be a telegram from the naval commander at Manila informing Sagasta of his great victory over Dewey at Manila and Sagasta's thanks to him for the same. Country in the vicinity of these towns in the same condition as that here—utterly destroyed and grown up. Inhabitants said that in 18 months they would be able to harvest their crop of bananas, which is the principal product of Baracoa. A regiment of insurgents were found in the vicinity of each place camped within a few hundred yards of Spanish troops, calmly observing each other.

"SHAFTER, Major General."

BETWEEN TWO PRESIDENTS.

Messages Exchanged Over the New Cable From the White House to Presidential Palace in Havre.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—President McKinley and President Faure of France yesterday morning exchanged direct messages. The occasion was the opening of a new cable between Cape Cod, Mass., and Havre, on the French coast, and the wires were connected to effect a through circuit between the White House at Washington, and the presidential palace at Havre.

The message from M. Faure was as follows.

To His Excellency, Mr. McKinley, President of the United States of America:

"It affords me special pleasure to inaugurate the new submarine communication, which will unite more directly than heretofore our two countries, by addressing to you an expression of the feeling of sincere sympathy existing between the French republic and the republic of the United States. I desire also to renew to you, Mr. President, the assurance of my high esteem and constant friendship."

"FELIX FAURE."

President McKinley sent the following response:

To His Excellency, M. Faure, President of the Republic of France:

"I am happy to believe that every addition to the means of communication between our two countries can serve only to keep alive and to strengthen that feeling of cordial good will which has so strikingly characterized their relations, both in early and in recent times. Permit me, Mr. President, most heartily to reciprocate your expressions of esteem and friendship."

"WILLIAM MCKINLEY."

HAY HAS ACCEPTED.

He Said He Would Become Secretary of State.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—United States Ambassador Hay came to the embassy yesterday from the country, where he has been visiting, and after transacting some accumulated routine business, he returned to continue his visit. To the correspondent of the Associated Press, Colonel Hay said: "I have been offered and accepted the post of secretary of state. I shall leave London in about a month."

Bear Admiral Dewey Reported the Taking of Manila to the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Admiral Dewey's official announcement of the bombardment and surrender of Manila was received yesterday as follows:

"MANILA, Aug. 13.

Secretary Navy, Washington:

"Manila surrendered today to the American land and naval forces after a combined attack. A division of the squadron shelled the forts and entrenchments at Malate on the south side of the city, driving back the enemy, our army advancing from that side at the same time. The city surrendered about 5 o'clock, the American flag being hoisted by Lieutenant Brumby. About

SPANISH LOSS REPORTED LARGE.

California Red Cross Society Rendered Valuable Aid to the Sick and Wounded. Large American Ships Were Ordered to Cease Firing, After Bombarding About an Hour—Troops Surrendered Their Arms—Merritt Found Them in Line, When He Reached the Palace.

HONGKONG, Aug. 18.—The American collier Zafiro, from Manila, which arrived here Tuesday was anchored yesterday in Junk bay. She left Manila on the 14th. A typhoon was raging yesterday and it was impossible to land the mails with further details of the battle at Manila.

It was learned, however, from an American naval officer, that when Admiral Dewey, on Aug. 6, demanded the surrender of Manila within 48 hours, the Spanish commander replied that the insurgents being outside the walls, he had no safe place for the women and children who were in the city, and asked for 24 hours' delay. This Admiral Dewey granted.

At the expiration of the specified time, Admiral Dewey and General Merritt consulted and decided to postpone the attack.

On Aug. 13 the American squadron formed in line off Manila. The Olympia fired the first shot at the Malate fort. The shots of the Americans tell short and some time was occupied in finding the range. Then the Callao, one of the gunboats captured by Admiral Dewey from the Spaniards, got under the fort and sent in a hot fire. Great destruction was done with the rapid-fire guns. The fort failed to reply, but fired on the American troops that were storming the Spanish trenches. The large American ships were ordered to cease firing after an hour's work, owing to the failure of the fort to respond.

The fighting in the trenches was most fierce. Fifteen minutes after the Spaniards were driven to the second line of defenses they were forced to retreat to the walled city, where, seeing the uselessness of resistance, they surrendered and soon afterward a white flag was hoisted over Manila.

The Belgian consul at Manila, M. Andre, boarded the Olympia and returned with an American lieutenant to the Spanish military governor, who agreed to surrender. General Merritt proceeded to the palace at 3:30 o'clock and there found the Spaniards formed in line. The troops surrendered their arms, but the officers were permitted to retain their swords.

The American loss is reported to be six or eight killed and 40 wounded. The Spanish loss was considerable, but the exact numbers are not obtainable. The trenches are filled with badly wounded Spaniards. Manila is now under martial law, with General Merritt as military governor.

The California Red Cross society rendered valuable aid to the sick and wounded. Perfect order prevailed in Manila on the evening of Aug. 13.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—The Norddeutsch Algemeine Zeitung explains that the Kaiserin Augusta, which brought away General Augusti from Manila, left the harbor after the surrender of the city, and asserts that the Spanish officers were allowed to go free, so that General Augusti was able to go whither he pleased.

"When Admiral von Diedrichs permitted him to go Hongkong on board the Kaiserin Augusta," says The Norddeutsch Algemeine Zeitung, "it was by agreement by the American commander-in-chief, if, indeed, the German admiral considered such an agreement still necessary. Moreover, it is also observed that the Spanish troops at Manila may, by mutual consent, proceed to Spain or Hongkong."

JENKS NOTIFIED.

Pennsylvania Democrats Had a Big Meeting at Bedford—Denied Understanding With Quay.

BEDFORD, Pa., Aug. 18.—The Hon.

George A. Jenkins of Brookville was yesterday afternoon formally notified by D. C. Dewitt of Towanda that he is the standard bearer of the Democratic party in this state for the coming campaign. The convention was called to order about 2 o'clock in the afternoon by Levi McQuiston of Butler. D. C. Dewitt was then nominated and elected chairman of the convention. He then made the notification speech and appointed the following secretaries: R. E. Umbell, Uniontown; John S. Riley, Erie, and Joseph Howley of Allegheny, He then said in part:

"Gentlemen, by authority of the Democratic state convention held at Altoona on June 29 we were appointed a committee to notify you that the state convention, having full confidence of your ability, integrity and industry, unanimously made you its nominee."

He spoke further and said it has been stated in some newspapers in the eastern part of the state, but not in the western part, that M. S. Quay influenced the Altoona convention and that the nominee for governor and Quay have a friendly understanding.

This speech was followed by the speech of Mr. Jenks in which he denied very strongly the accusation. Mr. Jenks' speech was followed by that of Hon. William H. Sowden, candidate for attorney general, who made a very strong speech and said in part:

"We are and always were for our country first and party afterwards, for without a country there can be no need for any great political parties. We are all united in our support of President McKinley in the war with Spain. There were happily no differences of opinion amongst us upon this important question, and our country never presented a grander spectacle before the world than it did in the complete unification of all her citizens in our recently ended war with that foreign nation. The corruption and profligacy of the last two Republican legislatures cannot be successfully hidden from the people in this campaign under the slogan of the war, protection and sound money, for these matters are not now in a controversy in this Commonwealth, so far as the same relate to national politics."

STONE TO THE FARMERS.

Pennsylvania Candidate Made a Speech at the Exposition Held at Mt. Gretna.

MOUNT GRETN, Pa., Aug. 18.—Col. W. A. Stone, the Republican candidate for governor, attended the Farmers' exposition, now in progress here, and was enthusiastically received.

Colonel Stone said in part: "They say Pennsylvania politics are corrupt. Did you make a mistake when you took the tax from your land and put it on corporations?"

"Did you make a mistake when you stood by sound money and gave 300,000 majority for McKinley? Where has this state made a mistake politically? She has not made any. There are not a true patriot who regrets the election of President McKinley."

"It seems almost an act of Providence that President McKinley was the man placed in power at this crisis of our history."

"There is not a state that manages its affairs as economically as this state does its affairs. The Democrats may vote for me or for Dr. Swallow, but not for Judge Jenks without voting for free silver and Democratic misrule."

"Do you suppose that President McKinley would think that this great state was satisfied with his glorious administration if it should support the Democratic party in this fall's election?"

"There is not a state that manages its affairs as economically as this state does its affairs. The Democrats may vote for me or for Dr. Swallow, but not for Judge Jenks without voting for free silver and Democratic misrule."

"If we can be content with our vast continental possessions we can dispense with the islands of the sea. There is no room for them in the United States."

EIGHTH OHIO BAND SERENADED

Recognition of the Courtesy of a Club at Santiago.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Aug. 18.—Tuesday evening the Eighth Ohio regimental band serenaded the Carlos Cuban club in recognition of the courtesy extended by the club to the officers of the American army and navy during their stay in Santiago.

The American national hymn was received with enthusiasm, all the Americans and Cubans—and even the Spaniards who were present—rising, applauding and cheering.

ARMY REVIEWED.

Nearly 50,000 People Saw the Boys March at Chickamauga Park—Occupied

Nearly Five Hours.

CHICKAMAUGA PARK, Ga., Aug. 18.—

The review at Camp Thomas yesterday morning was one of the most striking pageants of recent years and one which will long be remembered by all who had the opportunity of witnessing it.

Over 40,000 men in their most gorgeous array, marching in perfect order with bands playing and colors flying, made the occasion a truly inspiring one. A crowd of nearly 50,000 people were enthusiastic witnesses.

The long columns moved up to and past the tower on Snodgrass hill, where General Breckinridge and his guests were seated in the reviewing stand. The cavalry came first, the artillery next and the infantry last. Although the column only passed the reviewing stand once, the review occupied nearly five hours.

The American national hymn was received with enthusiasm, all the Americans and Cubans—and even the Spaniards who were present—rising, applauding and cheering.

The Clinton has been placed at the disposal of Miss Clara Barton of the Red Cross society and will be loaded at once to go to Havana before the end of this week to assist in relieving distress there.

14TH YEAR. NO. 60.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1898.

TWO CENTS

REBELS BARRED.

No Joint Occupation of Manila With Them.

SUCH INSTRUCTIONS SENT.

Merritt and Dewey Sent a Message Inquiring What to Do.

WERE TOLD TO TREAT ALL ALIKE.

Given Orders to Enforce Law and Order and to Deal the Same With All Law-Abiding Citizens—Insurgents and Spaniards on the Same Footing—It Is Thought Aguinaldo May Have Demanded the Right to Enter and Help Occupy Manila.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The two American commanders at Manila, Admiral Dewey and Major General Merritt, united in a joint dispatch, which was received here late yesterday afternoon, asking for instructions as to the manner of dealing with the various elements, particularly the insurgents, now that the city was occupied by the American forces. After a conference at the White House, in which Secretary Alger and Acting Secretary Allen participated, instructions were sent to the two American commanders. The text of the request for instructions and of the answer was not made public, but Secretary Alger summed up the instructions substantially as follows:

"The instructions are to enforce law and order, and to treat all law-abiding citizens alike." The instructions are practically the same as those sent Tuesday night to General Lawton. The latter order specifically stated that the insurgents must recognize the military occupation and authority of the United States and the cessation of hostilities proclaimed by this government. Doubtless the same rule is being applied to the insurgents under Aguinaldo, although it was not officially stated that such specific orders were made. It is said the joint dispatch from Dewey and Merritt did not in terms refer to Aguinaldo, nor did the instructions mention the insurgent leader by name. It is well understood, however, that the desire of the American commanders was to have instructions on the manner of dealing with the large and menacing forces of insurgents under Aguinaldo, who have surrounded Manila for many weeks and who it is thought may or have demanded the right to occupy the city with the American forces as the Cuban insurgents did at Santiago.

It had been thought in some quarters here that the showing heretofore made by the insurgents would lead to their receiving a certain amount of recognition, in the way of joint action between the United States forces and those of the insurgents, when the city was occupied. But the instructions sent last night are based on occupation by the United States alone, and as a high administration official summed up the situation:

"There shall be no joint action, except between Merritt and Dewey. They will maintain law and order and will treat insurgents and Spaniards alike, requiring all to observe peace and order."

THE MANGROVE'S FIGHT.

A Wonder the Little Vessel Was Not Wrecked by Spanish Shots In Caibarien Harbor.

KEY WEST, Aug. 18.—Further details have been received here as to the bombardment of the port of Caibarien, on the north coast of the province of Santa Clara, Cuba, last Sunday by the Mangrove. The Mangrove left here last week to protect the landing of an expedition under Colonel Bozas, which had gone ahead on the schooners Adams and Delic. When she reached Santa Clara Key, near Caibarien, she found the Cuban party had safely disembarked, but feared the advance because of the presence of the Spanish gunboat Hernan Cortes and a smaller gunboat.

On Saturday afternoon the Mangrove anchored at Key Francis, just outside Caibarien, and as she lay there the Hernan Cortes came out and ran around the key to get a peer at her, scurrying back into the harbor as soon as she saw she was discovered. The Mangrove followed as far as the shoal water would permit.

The next morning Captain Stuart boldly entered the harbor. The Hernan Cortes was anchored near the shore. The small gunboat lay at the wharf.

The Hernan Cortes carried two 4.7-inch guns and four 1-pounders, while her smaller companion was armed with three 1-pounders and a Hotchkiss rapid-fire gun. Ashore were several 1-pounder field pieces, while the Spanish troops were armed with Mauser rifles.

The Mangrove, whose entire battery consists of only two 6-pounders, worked into a range of 2,000 yards. The channel was so narrow that only one gun could be fired at a time.

A hot fire was poured at the American boat. Five or six shots fell on the Hernan Cortes' deck between the bow gun and amidships, scattering a body of men. Some of the latter must have been killed, although the Spaniards later denied that they suffered any loss.

Soon the Spaniards got the Mangrove's range and a veritable avalanche of shot and shell was hurled at her. It was nothing less than a miracle that her loss of life was not heavier.

In the midst of this, a boat with a flag of truce came out, bearing the news of the signing of the peace protocol.

A PEACE COMMISSIONER.

Senator Cushman K. Davis Has Accepted an Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Senator Cushman K. Davis, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, has accepted the tender of an appointment as a member of the Spanish-American peace commission.

TOWNS SURRENDERED.

Shafter Reported the Turning Over of Baracoa and Sagua De Tenamo to American Jurisdiction.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The war department yesterday received the following:

"SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Aug. 17.

Adjutant General, Washington:

"Major Miley has just returned from Baracoa and Sagua de Tenamo. At the two places there were 1,756 officers and men surrendered, 2,321 stands of arms and 413,000 rounds of ammunition, 5 Krupp guns, ranging in caliber from 5 inches down to 2 inches. Troops were very short of food, but 15 days' rations were given them by Major Miley and a large amount of Red Cross supplies landed at the same time at both places.

These troops knew nothing whatever of the destruction of Cervera's fleet, the fall of Santiago or any later events. They accepted the situation, however, and appeared to be glad at the opportunity of getting home.

"Major Miley states that on the door of the commanding officer was posted a bulletin purporting to be a telegram from the naval commander at Manila informing Sagasta of his great victory over Dewey at Manila and Sagasta's thanks to him for the same. Country in the vicinity of these towns in the same condition as that here—utterly destroyed and grown up. Inhabitants said that in 18 months they would be able to harvest their crop of bananas, which is the principal product of Baracoa. A regiment of insurgents were found in the vicinity of each place camped within a few hundred yards of Spanish troops, calmly observing each other.

"SHAFTER, Major General."

BETWEEN TWO PRESIDENTS.

Messages Exchanged Over the New Cable From the White House to Presidential Palace in Havre.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—President McKinley and President Faure of France yesterday morning exchanged direct messages. The occasion was the opening of a new cable between Cape Cod, Mass., and Havre, on the French coast, and the wires were connected to effect a through circuit between the White House at Washington, and the presidential palace at Havre.

The message from M. Faure was as follows:

To His Excellency, Mr. McKinley, President of the United States of America:

"It affords me special pleasure to inaugurate the new submarine communication, which will unite more directly than heretofore our two countries, by addressing to you an expression of the feeling of sincere sympathy existing between the French republic and the republic of the United States. I desire also to renew to you, Mr. President, the assurance of my high esteem and constant friendship."

"FELIX FAURE."

President McKinley sent the following response:

To His Excellency, M. Faure, President of the Republic of France:

"I am happy to believe that every addition to the means of communication between our two countries can serve only to keep alive and to strengthen that feeling of cordial good will which has so strikingly characterized their relations, both in early and in recent times. Permit me, Mr. President, most heartily to reciprocate your expressions of esteem and friendship."

"WILLIAM MCKINLEY."

HAY HAS ACCEPTED.

He Said He Would Become Secretary of State.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—United States Ambassador Hay came to the embassy yesterday from the country, where he has been visiting, and after transacting some accumulated routine business, he returned to continue his visit. To the correspondent of the Associated Press, Colonel Hay said: "I have been offered and accepted the post of secretary of state. I shall leave London in about a month."

Plague Again Epidemic.

BOMBAY, Aug. 18.—The bubonic plague is again epidemic. There were 103 deaths officially reported last week.

BRAVE MEN FELL.

Six or Eight Americans Killed Before Manila.

ABOUT 40 WERE WOUNDED.

Naval Officer Said the Fighting in the Trenches Was Very Fierce.

SPANISH LOSS REPORTED LARGE.

California Red Cross Society Rendered Valuable Aid to the Sick and Wounded. Large American Ships Were Ordered to Cease Firing, After Bombarding About an Hour—Troops Surrendered Their Arms—Merritt Found Them in Line, When He Reached the Palace.

HONGKONG, Aug. 18.—The American collier Zafiro, from Manila, which arrived here Tuesday was anchored yesterday in Junk bay. She left Manila on the 14th. A typhoon was raging yesterday and it was impossible to land the mails with further details of the battle at Manila.

It was learned, however, from an American naval officer, that when Admiral Dewey, on Aug. 6, demanded the surrender of Manila within 48 hours, the Spanish commander replied that the insurgents being outside the walls, he had no safe place for the women and children who were in the city, and asked for 24 hours' delay. This Admiral Dewey granted.

At the expiration of the specified time, Admiral Dewey and General Merritt consulted and decided to postpone the attack.

On Aug. 13 the American squadron formed in line off Manila. The Olympia fired the first shot at the Malate fort. The shots of the Americans tell short and some time was occupied in finding the range. Then the Callao, one of the gunboats captured by Admiral Dewey from the Spaniards, got under the fort and sent in hot fire. Great destruction was done with the rapid-fire guns. The fort failed to reply, but fired on the American troops that were storming the Spanish trenches. The large American ships were ordered to cease firing after an hour's work, owing to the failure of the fort to respond.

The fighting in the trenches was most fierce. Fifteen minutes after the Spaniards were driven to the second line of defenses they were forced to retreat to the walled city, where, seeing the uselessness of resistance, they surrendered and soon afterward a white flag was hoisted over Manila.

The Beiguan consul at Manila, M. Andre, boarded the Olympia and returned with an American lieutenant to the Spanish military governor, who agreed to surrender. General Merritt proceeded to the palace at 3:30 o'clock and there found the Spaniards formed in line. The troops surrendered their arms, but the officers were permitted to retain their swords.

The American loss is reported to be 8 or 9 killed and 40 wounded. The Spanish loss was considerable, but the exact numbers are not obtainable. The trenches are filled with badly wounded Spaniards. Manila is now under martial law, with General Merritt as military governor.

The California Red Cross society rendered valuable aid to the sick and wounded. Perfect order prevailed in Manila on the evening of Aug. 13.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung explains that the Kaiserin Augusta, which brought away General Augusti from Manila, left the harbor after the surrender of the city, and asserts that the Spanish officers were allowed to go free, so that General Augusti was able to go whither he pleased.

"When Admiral von Dierichs permitted him to go Hongkong on board the Kaiserin Augusta," says The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, "it was by agreement by the American commander-in-chief, if, indeed, the German admiral considered such an agreement still necessary. Moreover, it is also observed that the Spanish troops at Manila may, by mutual consent, proceed to Spain or Hongkong."

ABOUT 7,000 PRISONERS.

Rear Admiral Dewey Reported the Taking of Manila to the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Admiral Dewey's official announcement of the bombardment and surrender of Manila was received yesterday as follows:

"MANILA, Aug. 13.

Secretary Navy, Washington:

"Manila surrendered today to the American land and naval forces after a combined attack. A division of the squadron shelled the forts and entrenchments at Malate, on the south side of the city, driving back the enemy, our army advancing from that side at the same time. The city surrendered about 5 o'clock, the American flag being hoisted by Lieutenant Brumby. About 7,000 prisoners were taken. The squadron had no casualties, none of the vessels were injured.

"On Aug. 7 General Merritt and I formally demanded the surrender of the city, which the Spanish governor general refused.

(Signed) "DEWEY." Lieutenant Brumby is Admiral Dewey's flag lieutenant.

JENKS NOTIFIED.

Pennsylvania Democrats Had a Big Meeting at Bedford—Denied Understanding With Quay.

BEDFORD, Pa., Aug. 18.—The Hon. George A. Jenks of Brookville was yesterday afternoon formally notified by D. C. DeWitt of Towanda that he is the standard bearer of the Democratic party in this state for the coming campaign. The convention was called to order about 2 o'clock in the afternoon by Levi McQuiston of Butler. D. C. DeWitt was then nominated and elected chairman of the convention. He then made the notification speech and appointed the following secretaries: R. E. Umbell, Uniontown; John S. Riley, Erie, and Joseph Howley of Allegheny, He then said in part:

"Gentlemen, by authority of the Democratic state convention held at Altoona on June 29 we were appointed a committee to notify you that the state convention, having full confidence of your ability, integrity and industry, unanimously made you its nominee."

He spoke further and said it has been stated in some newspapers in the eastern part of the state, but not in the western part, that M. S. Quay influenced the Altoona convention and that the nominee for governor and Quay have a friendly understanding.

This speech was followed by the speech of Mr. Jenks in which he denied very strongly the accusation. Mr. Jenks' speech was followed by that of Hon. William H. Sowden, candidate for attorney general, who made a very strong speech and said in part:

"We are and always were for our country first and party afterwards, for without a country there can be no need for any great political parties. We are all united in our support of President McKinley in the war with Spain. There were happily no differences of opinion amongst us upon this important question, and our country never presented a grander spectacle before the world than it did in the complete unification of all her citizens in our recently ended war with that foreign nation. The corruption and profligacy of the last two Republican legislatures cannot be successfully hidden from the people in this campaign under the slogan of the war, protect on and sound money, for these matters are not now in a controversy in this commonwealth, so far as the same relate to national politics."

STONE TO THE FARMERS.

Pennsylvania Candidate Made a Speech at the Exposition Held at Mt. Gretna.

MOUNT GRETN, Pa., Aug. 18.—Col. W. A. Stone, the Republican candidate for governor, attended the Farmers' exposition, now in progress here, and was enthusiastically received.

Colonel Stone said in part: "They say Pennsylvania politics are corrupt. Did you make a mistake when you took the tax from your land and put it on corporations?"

"Did you make a mistake when you stood by sound money and gave 300,000 majority for McKinley? Where has this state made a mistake politically? She has not made any. There are not a true patriot who regrets the election of President McKinley."

"It seems almost an act of Providence that President McKinley was the man placed in power at this crisis of our history."

"There is not a state that manages its affairs as economically as this state does its affairs. The Democrats may vote for me or for Dr. Swallow, but not for Judge Jenks without voting for free silver and Democratic misrule."

"Do you suppose that President McKinley would think that this great state was satisfied with his glorious administration if it should support the Democratic party in this fall's election?"

GOING HOME.

Admiral Cervera May Start For Spain Today.

CAPTAIN MOREU RELEASED.

He Will Likely Accompany the Old Admiral on the Return Trip.

ALL MAY SOON BE RELEASED.

But Not All of the Spanish Officers Expect to Start Back to Their Native Country Immediately—Some Intend to Visit Places of Interest in the United States—One Desires to Remain Permanently in America—Cervera Praised Hobson Very Highly.

ANNAPOLE, Aug. 18.—Orders were issued at the naval academy yesterday releasing Captain Emylio Diaz Moreu, captain of the Colona, Spanish navy, as a prisoner of war. Captain Moreu is expected to leave here with Admiral Cervera today for Spain. Admiral Cervera, Captain Moreu and Lieutenant Cervera, arrived here yesterday afternoon, from Portsmouth, N. H., and shortly after reaching the academy the order releasing Captain Moreu was issued.

All the Spanish officers here expect to be released in a few days, but not all of them expect to return to Spain immediately. One of them intends to remain in this country permanently and others will visit Baltimore, Washington and other places of interest before returning to their country.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—There was considerable handclapping and some cheers yesterday morning when Admiral Cervera landed from the Fall River line steamboat Priscilla, at the foot of Murray street. While on the boat a passenger shook hands with Cervera and remarked: "I'm glad to know you were kind to Hobson." "Lieutenant Hobson is a brave young man and I admired his courage," answered the admiral.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING.

Methodist Protestants Elected a Board of Stewards.

At a congregational meeting after the prayer meeting at the Methodist Protestant church last night, the board of stewards for the conference year commencing next month, were elected. The board consisted of Bert Kaufman, James Vodrey, William Bettridge, Wesley Flemming, Louis Hardwick, Joel Taylor and Robert Burford.

After the election the securing of corporation papers for the church was presented. A committee was appointed to attend to the matter, and at the next meeting the papers will be presented. The election of trustees will be held immediately after the presentation of the papers.

The church at present is but $200 in debt, but this will be raised by the time conference meets, and a clear report will be presented to the body.

BOND ELECTION

Is Not Stirring the People In the City.

The bond election to be held next Saturday is arousing only a little interest, but the friends of the hospital project will make every effort to get the vote out.

The question of voting $15,000 to repair the streets will assist in getting the people to vote, and it is thought a great many persons will go to the polls on Saturday.

Big Freight Business.

Freight business at the depot yesterday was very good, and during the day a large number of cars were loaded and shipped from the outbound platform.

Business at the depot this morning was very brisk, and gave promise of being good all day. Receipts have been large this week, and it is noticeable that business at the depot is increasing.

CANCELING STAMPS.

According to the new revenue law you must cancel every stamp you put on a check, and you must put a stamp on every check you draw. The News Review has the best canceller. Leave your order to once.

MONEY FOR SOLDIERS.

As was announced in the News Review several days ago, contributions for the Red Cross society will be received at this office.

LEE AND WHEELER KISSED.

An Effecting Scene When the Two Met In Alger's Office.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—An effecting scene characterized the meeting yesterday in the office of Secretary Alger of Major Generals Wheeler and Lee. They are old friends and comrades in arms, but they had not met since the war began. Each grasped the other by both hands, and then General Lee drew his friend to his heart and they hugged and kissed each other regardless of the fact that many other persons were present. Secretary Alger was visibly effected.

Roosevelt to Resign.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—It is reported here that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, commanding the First volunteer cavalry, better known as the rough riders, will resign his military commission in a few days, but before doing so he will visit Washington for the purpose of conferring with the officials of the administration concerning the situation at Santiago, which resulted in forwarding the "round robin" petition for the transfer of the troops to the United States.

OIL TANK STRUCK.

6,000 Barrels of Fluid Destroyed Near Findlay, O., by Lightning.

FINLAY, O., Aug. 18.—Lightning struck a large oil tank belonging to the Buckeye Pipe Line company, west of the city yesterday, completely destroying 25,000 barrels of oil. A terrific explosion occurred, which shook the buildings in this city.

The fire spread to outbuildings, track and fences, and destroyed 15 cars belonging to the Lake Erie and Western Railroad company. The total loss is estimated at $30,000.

TENTH RECRUITS TO SAIL.

War Department Has Ordered Them to Start on Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The transport steamers Arizona and Scandia are under orders to sail. Word was received from the war department yesterday approving the recommendations of Major General Merriam, advising that these two vessels be sent to Manila, independent of any further call for troops from General Merritt. This move was recommended because the troops assigned to the Arizona are all detachments of regiments already detailed, and the Scandia is well adapted to the purpose of a hospital ship.

The Arizona will sail Saturday morning. Among the troops assigned to her are recruits for the Tenth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers.

TENNESSEE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 18.—The Republican state convention met yesterday in the senate chamber at the capitol. James A. Fowler of Clinton, East Tennessee, was nominated for governor by acclamation. The platform is chiefly devoted to demanding reforms in the administration of state affairs. It endorses the St. Louis platform and the administration of President McKinley.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 18.—At yesterday morning's session of the grand council Y. M. I. it was finally decided to hold biennial conventions hereafter. Father A. A. Lambing of Wilkinsburg addressed the delegates on the subject of higher education. The reports of officers showed that 22 councils had been added to the Pennsylvania jurisdiction during the year.

IRISH CATHOLIC BENEFICIAL UNION.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 18.—The delegates attending upon the convention of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union attended solemn high mass in the cathedral yesterday morning. The delegates then adjourned to Knights of Columbus hall, and the convention was called to order by President Duffy. The reports of the president, executive committee, secretary and treasurer were read and approved.

RED CROSS DAY IN PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 18.—The arrangements for Red Cross day in Pittsburgh are being rapidly perfected and interesting programs are being prepared for the people at the parks on that day. The 26th inst has been selected and it is expected by the committee to make it the greatest day Pittsburgh has ever enjoyed for any like purpose.

THANKS TO FRANCE.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—At the cabinet council yesterday morning the minister of foreign affairs, Mr. Delcasse, read dispatches from President McKinley and the queen regent of Spain, thanking the president and government of the French republic for their good offices in promoting negotiations. M. Delcasse added the governments at Washington and Madrid selected Paris as the scene of the negotiations for the final treaty of peace.

NEW M. P. PUBLISHER.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 18.—The Pittsburgh book directory of the Methodist Protestant board of publication held a meeting at the Methodist Protestant building, 422 Fifth avenue, yesterday to elect a successor to Prof. U. S. Fleming, who recently resigned as publishing agent to accept the post of superintendent of the public schools of Parkersburg, W. Va. The choice of the directory fell upon Francis W. Pierpont of this city.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 18.—Major General Graham has taken charge of the new military camp near Middletown and will recommend that it be named in honor of General George G. Meade.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Plans For the New Battleships—McLean's Real Estate Deal—Fireproof Wood In Torpedo Boats.

[Special Correspondence.]

Although the navy department has concluded that in the interest of better speed for the three new battleships to be built it cannot afford to defer the reception of bids beyond the period fixed in the original advertisement, bidders will have an opportunity to base estimates upon plans for battleships superior in speed to the Illinois type, which formed the basis of the original advertisements. Engineer in Chief Melville has prepared 11 separate and distinct sets of plans whereby higher speed can be realized in the new ships than the Illinois type possesses, and these plans will be sent to the great ship building firms which are likely to compete in order that they may submit bids based on them as well as upon the original Illinois designs.

As is usual in such cases, the advertisement permits ship builders to submit bids on the basis of their own plans or upon those of the department, so that the way is open for them to make use of these additional plans if they see fit, and the knowledge that the department will give preference in the award to the bidder promising the highest speed doubtless will influence them to accept some of these plans in their calculations.

The 11 plans contemplate speeds ranging from 16½ to 18 knots. Two of them provide for carrying 1,200 tons of coal, the same amount as the Illinois will carry, two of them change the present arrangements of bulkheads with the result of giving a speed of 17.4 knots and raising the radius of action at 10 knots speed from 5,432 miles to 6,460 in one case and to 5,643 in another. This is achieved by some improvements in the engines and by the adoption of a different type of boilers. One design reduces the coal capacity from 1,200 to 980 tons, but the radius of action is still in excess of that of the Illinois, being 5,630 miles, while provision is made for a maximum speed of 18 knots in an emergency.

MCLEAN'S REAL ESTATE DEAL.

One of the largest and most important real estate transactions which have for some time taken place in the District of Columbia was consummated the other day when deeds were placed on record transferring title to 63.37 acres of land on the Tenallytown road to Mr. John R. McLean from the Richmond syndicate, which concern, in turn, by deed from Mr. McLean, is made the owner of a valuable tract of land bounded by Nineteenth, Twentieth and S streets and Florida avenue, northwest. The tract acquired by Mr. McLean is valued in the transfer at $4,000 an acre, or about $254,000, while that which he deeds to the syndicate is estimated to be worth $1.50 per foot, or about $192,000. The difference between the two values is paid in cash by Mr. McLean. Included in the 63.37 acres are 1½ acres which Mr. McLean acquires from Mr. Charles C. Glover, which secures him a frontage on Arizona avenue.

Mr. McLean has for some time past leased the Newlands property on Woodley Lane road, and notwithstanding the fact that he has had nothing but a lease he has spent considerable money in beautifying the place. It is now understood that he will expend a large sum in improving his new possessions and will erect a handsome residence. It is believed that he does not, for a number of years to come at least, intend to subdivide the property, but will hold it for his own use and transform it into one of the handsomest residential properties in Washington. Revenue stamps to the value of $454.50 were required to be placed upon the deeds when filed.

FIREFPROOF TORPEDO BOATS.

Secretary Long has revised the plans upon which the 16 new torpedo boat destroyers are to be built as a result of the observations made by naval officers during the sea battle at Santiago. The interior finishings will be of fireproof wood, instead of oak, as originally intended. It was pointed out to Secretary Long that the gunners on the Spanish torpedo boats Furor and Pluton were compelled to abandon their posts because fire broke out in the cabins, which were made of inflammable wood. Although it is considered improbable that the new vessels will be called upon to fight in the near future, Secretary Long thought it best to be prepared for such exigencies as were encountered by the Spaniards.

ALLOTMENTS ARE NOT BONDS.

Secretary Gage has recently decided that under the law designated depositories of government funds may treat the notices of allotments of the new bonds as government securities. In view of the fact that the bonds will not be actually issued for some weeks many national banks have sought to use their allotments as the basis of circulation, as they desire to sell their high interest bonds and substitute the low rate securities. Comptroller Dawes has decided that this cannot be done, as the law specifically requires that circulation must be based on the deposit of registered bonds, and mere allotments will not do.

LISBON, Aug. 18.—[Special]—A glance into the official records of Columbian county show that its people are wealthy. The following is an abstract of the personal property, monies and credits given by townships and reported for the fiscal year ending 1898:

Butler, $287,310; Center, $480,825; Elkran, $167,106; Fairfield, $753,262; Franklin, $258,008; Hanover, $328,253; Knox, $852,776; Liverpool, $1,127,224; Madison, $122,940; Middleton, $152,274; Perry, $1,297,151; St. Clair, $119,737; Salem, $709,246; Unity, $641,629; Washington, $287,460; Wayne, $72,683; West, $419,832; Wellsville, $547,609; Yellow Creek, $102,236. Total, $8,227,460.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING.

Methodist Protestants Elected a Board of Stewards.

At a congregational meeting after the prayer meeting at the Methodist Protestant church last night, the board of stewards for the conference year commencing next month, were elected. The board consisted of Bert Kaufman, James Vodrey, William Bettridge, Wesley Flemming, Louis Hardwick, Joel Taylor and Robert Barford.

After the election the securing of corporation papers for the church was presented. A committee was appointed to attend to the matter, and at the next meeting the papers will be presented. The election of trustees will be held immediately after the presentation of the papers.

The church at present is but $200 in debt, but this will be raised by the time conference meets, and a clear report will be presented to the body.

BOND ELECTION

Is Not Stirring the People In the City.

The bond election to be held next Saturday is arousing only a little interest, but the friends of the hospital project will make every effort to get the vote out.

The question of voting $15,000 to repair the streets will assist in getting the people to vote, and it is thought a great many persons will go to the polls on Saturday.

Big Freight Business.

Freight business at the depot yesterday was very good, and during the day a large number of cars were loaded and shipped from the outbound platform.

Business at the depot this morning was very brisk, and gave promise of being good all day. Receipts have been large this week, and it is noticeable that business at the depot is increasing.

MONEY FOR SOLDIERS.

As was announced in the News Review several days ago, contributions for the Red Cross society will be received at this office.

LEE AND WHEELER KISSED.

An Effecting Scene When the Two Met In Alger's Office.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—An effecting scene characterized the meeting yesterday in the office of Secretary Alger of Major Generals Wheeler and Lee. They are old friends and comrades in arms, but they had not met since the war began. Each grasped the other by both hands, and then General Lee drew his friend to his heart and they hugged and kissed each other regardless of the fact that many other persons were present. Secretary Alger was visibly effected.

Roosevelt to Resign.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—It is reported here that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, commanding the First volunteer cavalry, better known as the rough riders, will resign his military commission in a few days, but before doing so he will visit Washington for the purpose of conferring with the officials of the administration concerning the situation at Santiago, which resulted in forwarding the "round robin" petition for the transfer of the troops to the United States.

OIL TANK STRUCK.

6,000 Barrels of Fluid Destroyed Near Findlay, O., by Lightning.

FINDLAY, O., Aug. 18.—Lightning struck a large oil tank belonging to the Buckeye Pipe Line company, west of the city yesterday, completely destroying 25,000 barrels of oil. A terrific explosion occurred, which shook the buildings in this city.

The fire spread to outbuildings, track and fences, and destroyed 15 cars belonging to the Lake Erie and Western Railroad company. The total loss is estimated at $30,000.

TENTH RECRUITS TO SAIL.

War Department Has Ordered Them to Start on Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The transport steamers Arizona and Scandia are under orders to sail. Word was received from the war department yesterday approving the recommendations of Major General Merriam, advising that these two vessels be sent to Manila, independent of any further call for troops from General Merritt. This move was recommended because the troops assigned to the Arizona are all detachments of regiments already detailed, and the Scandia is well adapted to the purpose of a hospital ship.

The Arizona will sail Saturday morning. Among the troops assigned to her are recruits for the Tenth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers.

TENNESSEE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 18.—The Republican state convention met yesterday in the senate chamber at the capitol. James A. Fowler of Clinton, East Tennessee, was nominated for governor by acclamation. The platform is chiefly devoted to demanding reforms in the administration of state affairs. It endorses the St. Louis platform and the administration of President McKinley.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 18.—At yesterday morning's session of the grand council Y. M. I. it was finally decided to hold biennial conventions hereafter. Father A. A. Lambing of Wilkinsburg addressed the delegates on the subject of higher education. The reports of officers showed that 22 councils had been added to the Pennsylvania jurisdiction during the year.

IRISH CATHOLIC BENEFICIAL UNION.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 18.—The delegates attending upon the convention of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union attended solemn high mass in the cathedral yesterday morning. The delegates then adjourned to Knights of Columbus hall, and the convention was called to order by President Duffy. The reports of the president, executive committee, secretary and treasurer were read and approved.

RED CROSS DAY IN PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 18.—The arrangements for Red Cross day in Pittsburgh are being rapidly perfected and interesting programs are being prepared for the people at the parks on that day. The 26th inst has been selected and it is expected by the committee to make it the greatest day Pittsburgh has ever enjoyed for any like purpose.

THANKS TO FRANCE.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—At the cabinet council yesterday morning the minister of foreign affairs, Mr. Delcasse, read dispatches from President McKinley and the queen regent of Spain, thanking the president and government of the French republic for their good offices in promoting negotiations. M. Delcasse added the governments at Washington and Madrid selected Paris as the scene of the negotiations for the final treaty of peace.

NEW M. P. PUBLISHER.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 18.—The Pittsburgh book directory of the Methodist Protestant board of publication held a meeting at the Methodist Protestant building, 422 Fifth avenue, yesterday to elect a successor to Prof. U. S. Fleming, who recently resigned as publishing agent to accept the post of superintendent of the public schools of Parkersburg, W. Va. The choice of the directory fell upon Francis W. Pierpont of this city.

May Be Named Camp Meade.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 18.—Major General Graham has taken charge of the new military camp near Middletown and will recommend that it be named in honor of General George G. Meade.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Plans For the New Battleships—McLean's Real Estate Deal—Fireproof Wood In Torpedo Boats.

[Special Correspondence.]

Although the navy department has concluded that in the interest of better speed for the three new battleships to be built it cannot afford to defer the reception of bids beyond the period fixed in the original advertisement, bidders will have an opportunity to base estimates upon plans for battleships superior in speed to the Illinois type, which formed the basis of the original advertisements. Engineer In Chief Melville has prepared 11 separate and distinct sets of plans whereby higher speed can be realized in the new ships than the Illinois type possesses, and these plans will be sent to the great ship building firms which are likely to compete in order that they may submit bids based on them as well as upon the original Illinois designs.

As is usual in such cases, the advertisement permits ship builders to submit bids on the basis of their own plans or upon those of the department, so that the way is open for them to make use of these additional plans if they see fit, and the knowledge that the department will give preference in the award to the bidder promising the highest speed doubtless will influence them to accept some of these plans in their calculations.

The 11 plans contemplate speeds ranging from 16½ to 18 knots. Two of them provide for carrying 1,200 tons of coal, the same amount as the Illinois will carry, two of them change the present arrangements of bulkheads with the result of giving a speed of 17.4 knots and raising the radius of action at 10 knots speed from 5,432 miles to 6,460 in one case and to 5,643 in another. This is achieved by some improvements in the engines and by the adoption of a different type of boilers. One design reduces the coal capacity from 1,200 to 980 tons, but the radius of action is still in excess of that of the Illinois, being 5,630 miles, while provision is made for a maximum speed of 18 knots in an emergency.

McLean's Real Estate Deal.

One of the largest and most important real estate transactions which have for some time taken place in the District of Columbia was consummated the other day when deeds were placed on record transferring title to 63.37 acres of land on the Tenallytown road to Mr. John R. McLean from the Richmond syndicate, which concern, in turn, by deed from Mr. McLean, is made the owner of a valuable tract of land bounded by Nineteenth, Twentieth and S streets and Florida avenue, northwest. The tract acquired by Mr. McLean is valued in the transfer at $4,000 an acre, or about $254,000, while that which he deeded to the syndicate is estimated to be worth $1.50 per foot, or about $192,000. The difference between the two values is paid in cash by Mr. McLean. Included in the 63.37 acres are 1½ acres which Mr. McLean acquires from Mr. Charles C. Glover, which secures him a frontage on Arizona avenue.

Mr. McLean has for some time past leased the Newlands property on Woodley Lane road, and notwithstanding the fact that he has had nothing but a lease he has spent considerable money in beautifying the place. It is now understood that he will expend a large sum in improving his new possessions and will erect a handsome residence. It is believed that he does not, for a number of years to come at least, intend to subdivide the property, but will hold it for his own use and transform it into one of the handsomest residential properties in Washington. Revenue stamps to the value of $454.50 were required to be placed upon the deeds when filed.

Fireproof Torpedo Boats.

Secretary Long has revised the plans upon which the 16 new torpedo boat destroyers are to be built as a result of the observations made by naval officers during the sea battle at Santiago. The interior finishings will be of fireproof wood, instead of oak, as originally intended. It was pointed out to Secretary Long that the gunners on the Spanish torpedo boats Furor and Pluton were compelled to abandon their posts because fire broke out in the cabins, which were made of inflammable wood. Although it is considered improbable that the new vessels will be called upon to fight in the near future, Secretary Long thought it best to be prepared for such exigencies as were encountered by the Spaniards.

Allotments Are Not Bonds.

Secretary Gage has recently decided that under the law designated depositories of government funds may treat the notices of allotments of the new bonds as government securities. In view of the fact that the bonds will not be actually issued for some weeks many national banks have sought to use their allotments as the basis of circulation, as they desire to sell their high interest bonds and substitute the low rate securities. Comptroller Dawes has decided that this cannot be done, as the law specifically requires that circulation must be based on the deposit of registered bonds, and mere allotments will not do.

Brazil produces on the average 360,000 tons of coffee per annum—that is, about four-fifths of the whole amount consumed in the world.

A RAID BY WHITECAPS.

Destroyed a Disorderly House and Tarred and Feathered Inmates.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Aug. 18.—Three hundred whitecaps destroyed a house of illfame at Smithfield by dynamiting it and tarred and feathered six girl inmates and three men found there.

American Bar Association.

SARATOGA, Aug. 18.—The American Bar association began its annual session here yesterday. There was a large attendance of distinguished members of the bar from all parts of the country. The president, William Wirt Howe of Louisiana, made the annual address. The address of welcome was made by Chief Judge Alton B. Parker of the court of appeals.

Mr. McLean has for some time past leased the Newlands property on Woodley Lane road, and notwithstanding the fact that he has had nothing but a lease he has spent considerable money in beautifying the place. It is now understood that he will expend a large sum in improving his new possessions and will erect a handsome residence. It is believed that he does not, for a number of years to come at least, intend to subdivide the property, but will hold it for his own use and transform it into one of the handsomest residential properties in Washington. Revenue stamps to the value of $454.50 were required to be placed upon the deeds when filed.

Fireproof Torpedo Boats.

Secretary Long has revised the plans upon which the 16 new torpedo boat destroyers are to be built as a result of the observations made by naval officers during the sea battle at Santiago. The interior finishings will be of fireproof wood, instead of oak, as originally intended. It was pointed out to Secretary Long that the gunners on the Spanish torpedo boats Furor and Pluton were compelled to abandon their posts because fire broke out in the cabins, which were made of inflammable wood. Although it is considered improbable that the new vessels will be called upon to fight in the near future, Secretary Long thought it best to be prepared for such exigencies as were encountered by the Spaniards.

Allotments Are Not Bonds.

Secretary Gage has recently decided that under the law designated depositories of government funds may treat the notices of allotments of the new bonds as government securities. In view of the fact that the bonds will not be actually issued for some weeks many national banks have sought to use their allotments as the basis of circulation, as they desire to sell their high interest bonds and substitute the low rate securities. Comptroller Dawes has decided that this cannot be done, as the law specifically requires that circulation must be based on the deposit of registered bonds, and mere allotments will not do.

HE WAIVED A HEARING

A. C. Fogo's Case Will Go to Common Pleas.

SETTLED IN A HURRY TODAY

Mayor Dennis Placed the Bond at $1,000. A Crowd Had Gathered In the Hope of Hearing Sensational Testimony, but Were Disappointed—All the News.

A. C. Fogo, late superintendent of the water works, appeared before Mayor Dennis, this morning for the purpose of facing the charge made against him by Mr. Anderson, a member of the board of water commissioners. A crowd had gathered, anticipating an interesting morning, for it was fully expected the former superintendent would begin to fight the matter in the first court. They were disappointed, however, for Fogo promptly waived a hearing and was bound to the grand jury in the sum of $1,000. His attorney, Mr. Lones, was not present.

An Accident.

Yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, as Frank Hooper was driving from his home near Salineville to that place, a seat containing three little girls, who had been visiting at his home, overturned, and they were precipitated to the ground. Nora Hill, aged 12 years, was injured, and at first much alarm was felt concerning her condition, but a physician was called and after a thorough examination it was found no bones were broken.

A Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. David Griffith took place at 3 o'clock today. Reverend C. W. Stephenson conducted the services. Mrs. Griffith's death occurred Tuesday night. The little babe left is in a precarious condition, and its death would not be unexpected at any time.

The News of Wellsville.

Reverend and Mrs. R. C. Ackerman who have been visiting Mrs. Ackerman's father, Daniel Tarr, returned today to their home in Elizabeth, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wild, who formerly lived in Wellsville, are removing from Cleveland to East Liverpool.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fassett expect to go to Augusta next Saturday for a month's visit with Mrs. Fassett's parents.

Miss Mary Faulk, who has been visiting George Wells, left today for her home in Mansfield.

E. S. Kelley went to Cleveland on business yesterday.

Mrs. Mary McGregor has returned to her home in Wooster, after a visit with relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. George Schmidt and Miss Kate Boyce, of Liverpool, and Mrs. Mary Donaldson and her two daughters took the morning train for Canton, where they will attend the wedding of Harvey Smith and Miss Bessie Frease.

Mrs. Theodore Apple left this morning for Springfield, where she will inspect the Odd Fellows Orphans' home at that place.

Dr. and Mrs. Harden and their daughters, Misses Marie and Helen, left this morning for their home in Wellsville, W. Va.

John Peters, editor of the Keystone Endeavorer of Pittsburg, and his sister, Miss Sue Peters, stopped over to greet friends on their way home from a visit with relatives in Empire.

Miss Goodlin, of Empire, who has been visiting friends in town, left for her home yesterday. Miss Goodlin will stop for a short time at Hollow Rock campmeeting with her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Burnett.

Mrs. Mary McFarland, of Winnipeg Manitoba, arrived yesterday to spend a few weeks with John Rose and other relatives in the Scotch settlement.

Mrs. Alfred Connell arrived home yesterday after a three weeks' visit among relatives.

Mrs. James Brick and daughter, Miss Mary Brick, and Mrs. W. L. Fogo are spending the day with Mrs. W. G. Bright, Bridgeport.

Reverend Patterson, wife and daughter, of Orange, N. J., are visiting Mrs. T. M. Patterson, corner Commerce and Eleventh streets.

Mrs. Dobbs, who was sent by kind friends to a hospital in Columbus for medical treatment about a month ago, was sent home and her case was pronounced incurable. In addition she had developments of mental aberration, and this morning her husband took her to Newburg, where it is hoped she will recover.

Mary Anderson-Navarro's younger half sister, the daughter of Dr. Hamilton Griffin, is with the Navarros in Germany this summer, training her voice for the concert stage. She is just at the age when her sister made her first successes on the stage and is said to bear a striking resemblance to the former actress.

The youngest "daughter of a regiment" in the United States is said to be Julia Crosby Black, daughter of Captain Joseph A. Black of the Fourth Missouri volunteer infantry. She is now only 6 years of age, and it is two years since she was mustered in. She is not with the regiment now, but at her home in Carrollton, Mo.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.

THERE are congressmen and congressmen. Hon. R. W. Taylor has missed no opportunity to do all he could for the Eighth Ohio, but other representatives whose districts are represented in the regiment, have not been heard of in that connection.

CUBA has for generations been the home of the oppressed, but now that this government is to have much to do with its development all Europe is hurrying to invest in the island. There is no doubt about its future. The next few years will clear away the debris left by war, and the island will blossom like a garden.

THE European nations who seem so anxious to have something to say concerning the settlement of the Philippine question, may not urge their claims when they realize that Uncle Sam has said he would settle his differences with Spain without interference. It may require a few weeks for them to understand the real meaning of that statement, but in the end they will understand.

A GOOD POLICY.

When President McKinley determined to leave the Philippine matter unsettled until the country could have time to give it some thought he adopted a policy of wisdom. The subject is most important since a great question is involved, one which has never yet been passed upon by this government. To settle it at once, before the fire of the Spanish war has subsided, would leave a possibility of error, but to give it mature deliberation means that the country will not be placed in the wrong path.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The state committee has not yet decided when the fall campaign will be commenced, but as soon as the Democrats have decided on a ticket the good work will begin. From present indications it will be pushed with vigor as soon as started, and in every part of Ohio will be heard the voices of honest Republicans arguing the cause of Republicanism. It should be a good campaign, one that will show the claims of the party and present its views in such a manner as to bring about a great majority next fall. The people are expecting it.

MUSTERING OUT.

Now that the country has no more use for a large army thousands of volunteers are to be mustered out and returned to the occupations they left when President McKinley summoned them to protect the honor of the nation. While there may be found in some commands a strong military spirit that will oppose the movement, there is no reason why these patriotic Americans should longer desire to remain in the service now that their work is done. They were enlisted for a purpose, and that purpose has been attained. Nothing remains but peace, and Uncle Sam wants no great army in time of peace.

Albert A. Craig Killed at Columbian Park.

WAS THROWN FROM HIS HORSE

He Was Riding in a Running Race When the Animal Left the Track Near the Entrance to the Place, and Dashing Toward a Tree Suddenly Took Another Course—The Young Man Was Thrown Against the Tree In Such Manner as to Kill Him Almost Instantly—The Remains Taken to His Old Home For Interment.

A most distressing accident brought to a sudden end the races at the library picnic at Columbian park yesterday afternoon, resulting as it did in the death of Albert A. Craig, a highly esteemed young man of the city.

The program for the day was almost ended, and the crowd in the grand stand had wearied of their seats, and about 6 o'clock taken places along the track in order that they might see the finish of a running race that had long been predicted would be a most exciting event. In order that they might be ready to catch the first car to the city, a number of persons were standing near the ticket office that marks the entrance to the park. Others still retained their seats in the grand stand, and all were ready for the finish.

The horses started from the usual place, and came dashing down the track, taking the turn at the grand stand splendidly and jumping into the stretch with all the fire and animation seen in a race so exciting. W. T. Tebbutt had entered two horses, the bay and the black that have been so often seen on the streets of the city as to be known to almost everyone. The former was ridden by Davy Brown, a well known colored jockey of the city, and Mr. Craig, who is noted as a daring rider, bestrode the other. The last horse was a sorrel owned by William Clay and handled by his nephew who bears the same name.

The other horses had immediately after the start assumed advantageous positions on the track, and Mr. Craig and his mount were on the outside tearing along like mad for a good place when the racers took the stretch. All went well and the fiery animal was well in hand until a point near the end of the turn and not far from the entrance to the park was reached. There the animal left the track and shot like an arrow across the turf. Endeavoring to pull him back and leaning to the left Mr. Craig was doing his best, although the horse was making straight for a tree which stands close to the ticket office. Without an instant of warning it had quickly veered in another direction, the rider had lost his balance and was wrapped about the tree. One foot was disengaged from the stirrup and the ankle of the other seemed to be broken. He dropped to the ground without a word, while the horse, freed from its burden, galloped on for a short distance and then stopped.

Col. H. R. Hill, R. L. Andrews and a number of others were standing close to where the young man fell and all hastened to his side. He was tenderly raised, but those about him knew in a moment that he would never leave the spot where he fell alive. He was not unconscious, but opening his eyes looked intelligently for a moment into Colonel Hill's face. Then his eyes closed and in spite of all attempts to prolong his life, he died in a few minutes. Mr. Andrews at once went to the telephone and ordered a car forwarded from the power house at once, also notifying the fire station in order that the patrol might be at the foot of Broadway when the car arrived. He did not know then that the unfortunate young man was dead. When the car arrived the body was tenderly lifted to it and taken to West's undertaking rooms where it was prepared for burial.

Meantime the crowd had grasped the horror of the situation, and had silently and sadly gone to the city, but not far away another scene was being enacted. Seated there during the afternoon were Mrs. W. T. Tebbutt and Miss Craig, sisters of the dead horseman. None had cheered him more enthusiastically to victory, and the shock caused by his sudden death was almost more than they could bear. They were accompanied by Mr. Tebbutt who soon learned the extent of Mr. Craig's injuries and communicated the facts to the ladies, who were taken to their home in Thompson place.

Albert A. Craig was born in Coburg, Ont., 28 years ago last week, and came here to take a responsible position under

Mr. Tebbutt in the office of the Potters' Protective association in the spring of 1897. He was an efficient office man and popular with all who knew him. Being an excellent horseman he frequently rode the big black horse which took him to his death, and could be frequently seen on the streets enjoying his favorite pastime. Once before while at the park the horse bolted at the same place, but Mr. Craig was then able to keep him to the course and there was no accident. He did the same thing again yesterday in the first race, and was quickly brought back.

The remains will be taken this evening to Coburg for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Tebbutt and Miss Craig have the sympathy of the entire community in their great loss for the young man was the light of the household. His sudden death is to them a great loss, but they have the knowledge that a great many friends in the city deeply deplore the awful happening which took from them a man they were glad to call friend.

A Painter's Conscience.

In the course of some reminiscences of Sir Edward Burne-Jones a correspondent of The Westminster Gazette remarks: Those who are not "offended" by the paradoxes of Charles Lamb would have delighted in Burne-Jones' play of humor and imagination. Let me justify my reference to Charles Lamb.

I once returned to Burne-Jones some books which he had lent me 30 years before, writing to him to the effect that if it was base to keep borrowed books so long it was heroic to return them after such long possession as might well breed the sense of ownership. In reply he said:

"The return of those books has simply staggered me. It has also pained me, for it seems to raise the standard of morality in these matters and perhaps to sting the susceptible consciences of book borrowers. I have many borrowed books on my shelves. I would rather the owners should die than that I should have to think about these things and return them. I have two costly volumes that were lent to me before that little incident of ours, which, you may remember, was in Red Lion square. I hope the owner is no more, for I simply will not give them up. And you have made me uneasy and have helped to turn an amiable rascal into a confirmed villain. Your affectionate NED."

Slang Puzzled Him.

Edouard Remenyi, the great violinist, used to say that some of the hardest studying he ever did in his life began after an experience he had in Detroit.

"On my first tour of this country," he delighted in telling, "I worked unceasingly to acquire a knowledge of the language and got on fairly well. But the slang that I found so prevalent baffled me more than anything else. I gave a performance in Detroit one night and met with a reception that warmed my heart toward her people. Among other things, this appeared in one of the papers next morning: 'Here an ugly, little, bowlegged chap, whose clothes hung loosely about his ungainly person, waddled to the footlights. But, sakes alive, how he did play the fiddle!'

"Now, I couldn't make out what that 'sakes alive' meant, so I timidly approached a gentlemanly citizen, told him of my inability to grasp the meaning of the slang, and asked him if the expression was intended to be complimentary.

"He kindly read it and replied, 'Well, I should snicker.'

"I was more bewildered than ever, and from that time on made the study of slang one of my chief occupations." —Detroit Free Press.

A Forgetful Bishop.

An English bishop, noted for the shortness of his memory, was one day waiting at a station for train. Being in good time, his lordship was indulging in a solitary trot up and down the platform. While thus engaged, he came in contact with a young officer whose face seemed familiar to him. Meeting him again, he said "Good morning."

At the next encounter the bishop stopped, saying, "How is your father?" The gallant soldier replied, "He has been dead for many years." The bishop tried again with the query, "How is your mother?" "Well," said the officer, smiling, "I think she must be all right, or you would have heard had she been indisposed."

The bishop walked away, but his curiosity was greatly aroused. Seeing the station master, he at once asked him if he could enlighten him as to who the young officer was with whom he had been conversing. "Oh," replied the station master, "why, your lordship, that's the Duke of Connacht." —Household Words.

Artillery Terms.

All artillery may be divided into two main classes, heavy and light. Heavy artillery is called also garrison artillery. Heavy artillery guns are placed permanently in forts, and the men who handle them form foot artillery batteries and regiments. Light artillery refers to guns not permanently emplaced—that is, light enough to be taken from place to place by means of horses and maneuvered by hand. In our army the light artillery gunners ride on the caissons and gun carriages. In horse artillery the gunners ride horses, so that a horse artillery battery has a great many more horses than a light battery. We have no horse batteries in our army. A field battery is a light battery. A flying battery is a horse battery. Siege guns are between heavy and light artillery.

They are intended to be placed permanently for the time being and are brought to their places by teams, but they are not maneuvered as light guns are.—New York Sun.

Devon and Cornwall Arthur M. Norway tells of a fragment of antiquity that still "lingers in the neighborhood of Redruth, where the country people, when they see a ghost, say, 'Nummy dunny!'" and he adds, "I leave the riddle to be solved by any one who is curious enough to undertake a useful piece of practice in unravelling the corruption of language."

The phrase is probably a corruption of "In nomine Domini," the Latin for "In the name of the Lord," a phrase so familiar in the devotion of the middle ages.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, AUGUST 18

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.

THERE are congressmen and congressmen. Hon. R. W. Taylor has missed no opportunity to do all he could for the Eighth Ohio, but other representatives whose districts are represented in the regiment, have not been heard of in that connection.

CUBA has for generations been the home of the oppressed, but now that this government is to have much to do with its development all Europe is hurrying to invest in the island. There is no doubt about its future. The next few years will clear away the debris left by war, and the island will blossom like a garden.

THE European nations who seem so anxious to have something to say concerning the settlement of the Philippine question, may not urge their claims when they realize that Uncle Sam has said he would settle his differences with Spain without interference. It may require a few weeks for them to understand the real meaning of that statement, but in the end they will understand.

A GOOD POLICY.

When President McKinley determined to leave the Philippine matter unsettled until the country could have time to give it some thought he adopted a policy of wisdom. The subject is most important since a great question is involved, one which has never yet been passed upon by this government. To settle it at once, before the fire of the Spanish war has subsided, would leave a possibility of error, but to give it mature deliberation means that the country will not be placed in the wrong path.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The state committee has not yet decided when the fall campaign will be commenced, but as soon as the Democrats have decided on a ticket the good work will begin. From present indications it will be pushed with vigor as soon as started, and in every part of Ohio will be heard the voices of honest Republicans arguing the cause of Republicanism. It should be a good campaign, one that will show the claims of the party and present its views in such a manner as to bring about a great majority next fall. The people are expecting it.

MUSTERING OUT.

Now that the country has no more use for a large army thousands of volunteers are to be mustered out and returned to the occupations they left when President McKinley summoned them to protect the honor of the nation. While there may be found in some commands a strong military spirit that will oppose the movement, there is no reason why these patriotic Americans should longer desire to remain in the service now that their work is done. They were enlisted for a purpose, and that purpose has been attained. Nothing remains but peace, and Uncle Sam wants no great army in time of peace.

DIED IN A MINUTE

Albert A. Craig Killed at Columbian Park.

WAS THROWN FROM HIS HORSE

He Was Riding in a Running Race When the Animal Left the Track Near the Entrance to the Place, and Dashing Toward a Tree Suddenly Took Another Course—The Young Man Was Thrown Against the Tree In Such Manner as to Kill Him Almost Instantly—The Remains Taken to His Old Home For Interment.

A most distressing accident brought to a sudden end the races at the library picnic at Columbian park yesterday afternoon, resulting as it did in the death of Albert A. Craig, a highly esteemed young man of the city.

The program for the day was almost ended, and the crowd in the grand stand had wearied of their seats, and about 6 o'clock taken places along the track in order that they might see the finish of a running race that had long been predicted would be a most exciting event. In order that they might be ready to catch the first car to the city, a number of persons were standing near the ticket office that marks the entrance to the park. Others still retained their seats in the grand stand, and all were ready for the finish.

The horses started from the usual place, and came dashing down the track, taking the turn at the grand stand splendidly and jumping into the stretch with all the fire and animation seen in a race so exciting. W. T. Tebbutt had entered two horses, the bay and the black that have been so often seen on the streets of the city as to be known to almost everyone. The former was ridden by Davy Brown, a well known colored jockey of the city, and Mr. Craig, who is noted as a daring rider, bestrode the other. The last horse was a sorrel owned by William Clay and handled by his nephew who bears the same name.

The other horses had immediately after the start assumed advantageous positions on the track, and Mr. Craig and his mount were on the outside tearing along like mad for a good place when the racers took the stretch. All went well and the fiery animal was well in hand until a point near the end of the turn and not far from the entrance to the park was reached. There the animal left the track and shot like an arrow across the turf. Endeavoring to pull him back and leaning to the left Mr. Craig was doing his best, although the horse was making straight for a tree which stands close to the ticket office. Without an instant of warning it had quickly veered in another direction, the rider had lost his balance and was wrapped about the tree. One foot was disengaged from the stirrup and the ankle of the other seemed to be broken. He dropped to the ground without a word, while the horse, freed from its burden, galloped on for a short distance and then stopped.

Col. H. R. Hill, R. L. Andrews and a number of others were standing close to where the young man fell and all hastened to his side. He was tenderly raised, but those about him knew in a moment that he would never leave the spot where he fell alive. He was not unconscious, but opening his eyes looked intelligently for a moment into Colonel Hill's face. Then his eyes closed and in spite of all attempts to prolong his life, he died in a few minutes. Mr. Andrews at once went to the telephone and ordered a car forwarded from the power house at once, also notifying the fire station in order that the patrol might be at the foot of Broadway when the car arrived. He did not know then that the unfortunate young man was dead. When the car arrived the body was tenderly lifted to it and taken to West's undertaking rooms where it was prepared for burial.

Meantime the crowd had grasped the horror of the situation, and had silently and sadly gone to the city, but not far away another scene was being enacted. Seated there during the afternoon were Mrs. W. T. Tebbutt and Miss Craig, sisters of the dead horseman. None had cheered him more enthusiastically to victory, and the shock caused by his sudden death was almost more than they could bear. They were accompanied by Mr. Tebbutt who soon learned the extent of Mr. Craig's injuries and communicated the facts to the ladies, who were taken to their home in Thompson place.

Albert A. Craig was born in Coberg, Ont., 23 years ago last week, and came here to take a responsible position under

Mr. Tebbutt in the office of the Potters' Protective association in the spring of 1897. He was an efficient office man and popular with all who knew him. Being an excellent horseman he frequently rode the big black horse which took him to his death, and could be frequently seen on the streets enjoying his favorite pastime. Once before while at the park the horse bolted at the same place, but Mr. Craig was then able to keep him to the course and there was no accident. He did the same thing again yesterday in the first race, and was quickly brought back.

The remains will be taken this evening to Coberg for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Tebbutt and Miss Craig have the sympathy of the entire community in their great loss for the young man was the light of the household. His sudden death is to them a great loss, but they have the knowledge that a great many friends in the city deeply deplore the awful happening which took from them a man they were glad to call friend.

A Painter's Conscience.

In the course of some reminiscences of Sir Edward Burne-Jones a correspondent of The Westminster Gazette remarks: Those who are not "offended" by the paradoxes of Charles Lamb would have delighted in Burne-Jones' play of humor and imagination. Let me justify my reference to Charles Lamb.

I once returned to Burne-Jones some books which he had lent me 30 years before, writing to him to the effect that if it was base to keep borrowed books so long it was heroic to return them after such long possession as might well breed the sense of ownership. In reply he said:

"The return of those books has simply staggered me. It has also pained me, for it seems to raise the standard of morality in these matters and perhaps to sting the susceptible consciences of book borrowers. I have many borrowed books on my shelves. I would rather the owners should die than that I should have to think about these things and return them. I have two costly volumes that were lent to me before that little incident of ours, which, you may remember, was in Red Lion square. I hope the owner is no more, for I simply will not give them up. And you have made me uneasy and have helped to turn an amiable rascal into a confirmed villain. Your affectionate NED."

Slang Puzzled Him.

Edouard Remenyi, the great violinist, used to say that some of the hardest studying he ever did in his life began after an experience he had in Detroit.

"On my first tour of this country," he delighted in telling, "I worked unceasingly to acquire a knowledge of the language and got on fairly well. But the slang that I found so prevalent baffled me more than anything else. I gave a performance in Detroit one night and met with a reception that warmed my heart toward her people. Among other things, this appeared in one of the papers next morning: 'Here an ugly, little, bowlegged chap, whose clothes hung loosely about his ungainly person, waddled to the footlights. But, sakes alive, how he did play the fiddle!'

"Now, I couldn't make out what that 'sakes alive' meant, so I timidly approached a gentlemanly citizen, told him of my inability to grasp the meaning of the slang, and asked him if the expression was intended to be complimentary.

"He kindly read it and replied, 'Well, I should snicker.'

"I was more bewildered than ever, and from that time on made the study of slang one of my chief occupations." —Detroit Free Press.

A Forgetful Bishop.

An English bishop, noted for the shortness of his memory, was one day waiting at a station for a train. Being in good time, his lordship was indulging in a solitary trot up and down the platform. While thus engaged, he came in contact with a young officer whose face seemed familiar to him. Meeting him again, he said "Good morning."

At the next encounter the bishop stopped, saying, "How is your father?" The gallant soldier replied, "He has been dead for many years." The bishop tried again with the query, "How is your mother?" "Well," said the officer, smiling, "I think she must be all right, or you would have heard had she been indisposed."

The bishop walked away, but his curiosity was greatly aroused. Seeing the station master, he at once asked him if he could enlighten him as to who the young officer was with whom he had been conversing. "Oh," replied the station master, "why, your lordship, that's the Duke of Connaught." —Household Words.

ARTILLERY TERMS.

All artillery may be divided into two main classes, heavy and light. Heavy artillery is called also garrison artillery. Heavy artillery guns are placed permanently in forts, and the men who handle them form foot artillery batteries and regiments. Light artillery refers to guns not permanently emplaced—that is, light enough to be taken from place to place by means of horses and maneuvered by hand. In our army the light artillery gunners ride on the caissons and gun carriages. In horse artillery the gunners ride horses, so that a horse artillery battery has a great many more horses than a light battery. We have no horse batteries in our army. A field battery is a light battery. A flying battery is a horse battery. Siege guns are between heavy and light artillery.

They are intended to be placed permanently for the time being and are brought to their places by teams, but they are not maneuvered as light guns are.—New York Sun.

"Nummy Dummy."

In his "Highways and Byways in Devon and Cornwall" Arthur H. Norway tells of a fragment of antiquity that still "lingers in the neighborhood of Redruth, where the country people, when they see a ghost, say, 'Nummy dummy!'" and he adds, "I leave the riddle to be solved by any one who is curious enough to undertake a useful piece of practice in unraveling the corruption of language."

The phrase is probably a corruption of "In nomine Domini," the Latin for "In the name of the Lord," a phrase so familiar in the devotion of the middle ages.

THREE BAD ACCIDENTS

Harry Kelly Was Hurt While Boarding a Car.

CHARLES MULHERIN WAS HURT

And Was Unconscious For Two Hours, but He Will Recover—Frank Shea and Henry Ament Were Hurt at Columbian Park.

Harry Kelley, of Wellsville, met with a serious accident, last evening, while on his way home, and as a result is now under the care of a physician.

Kelley is employed by the telephone company as an inspector, and at 6 o'clock last evening was waiting for a car at the corner of Drury lane and Washington street. The motorman of car No. 5 had stopped the car to allow several passengers to get on. Kelley was the last, and as he caught the hand rail the current was turned on, causing the car to start with a jerk. Kelley had not yet secured a footing, and as he saw the car was not going to stop he let go, but not before he was dragged 30 feet. He got up and walked back to the steps of the First National bank, where he found it impossible to go farther. His right knee was cut about two inches in the cap, and the calf of the leg was badly bruised. He was assisted to the office of the company, where his injuries were partially dressed by William Moore. He was then put on a car and taken to his home.

Charles Mulherin, employed at a livery stable, was kicked over the heart last evening shortly before 7 o'clock by a horse owned by Doctor Toot.

The doctor had telephoned for the horse, and Mulherin was sent to hitch it in the buggy. As he entered the horse kicked him, knocking him across the stable. Several men working a short distance away ran to him and picked him up, carrying him to the room where he stayed. He was unconscious for two hours and all efforts of a physician to revive him were of no avail. An examination showed that while no bones were broken he suffered several hemorrhages.

This morning he was resting easy and he will recover.

Mulherin lives in Summittville and has been working in this city about two years.

A horse attached to a sulky and driven by Robert Walters ran away at Columbian park yesterday afternoon. It dashed into Frank Shea and Henry Ament as they were coming down the stretch on bicycles. The wheels were broken, and Shay had a severe cut on his head. Ament suffered a hole through one ear, but rode in two races after the accident. The sulky was demolished.

SUED THE SPECIALTY.

An Insurance Company Is After Money.

LISBON, Aug. 18. —[Special]—Jacob F. Deemer has filed a petition asking for $1,000 damages from John Post, claiming that Aug. 13 he struck, beat and wounded him. The parties are from Salem.

A. A. Sparks, as receiver of the Security Mutual Insurance Co., has brought action against the Specialty Glass Co. of Liverpool, asking $234.37, claimed on an insurance policy issued March 8, 1895. It is the same amount the Fidelity company sued for a short time ago.

Frank D. Taylor has sued Taylor Temple, asking for partition of lots 119, 120, 159 in Hanover. He claims a three-fourth interest.

Twenty-one deeds and mortgages were left for record with Recorder Crosser yesterday. It is an increase over recent business. The following are from Liverpool:

Ida M. Palmer to R. D. Stevenson, part of lot 1,058, $500. Richard Barlow to T. J. Kerr, lots 41 and 47, $2,200. J. W. Nott to J. Orr lot 2,879, $1,200.

Clerk McNutt and Deputy Supplee are at Township Line today.

NO TRIAL.

The Defendant Paid and the Case Ended.

The case of Allie Dailey, against whom a charge of assault and battery was made by Mary J. Potts, on behalf of her daughter, Agnes Potts, has been settled without coming to trial.

Last evening the defendant called at the office of Justice Rose and paid a fine of $5.60, which settled the case.

Narrow Escape.

The work of relaying the water main in Pennsylvania avenue is progressing slowly. Yesterday afternoon one of the workmen narrowly escaped serious injury owing to a large portion of the ditch caving in.

A BIG CROWD.

Politicians, Farmers and City Folk Are There In Great Numbers Enjoying the Day.

The annual Township Line picnic is being held today at Smith's grove, and as usual is largely attended by an immense number of farmers, while politicians and prospective candidates from various parts of the county are present to greet their country cousins.

Every livery rig in the city was engaged before today, and many people who intended to attend the picnic were compelled to remain at home.

The speakers of the day were Hon. J. Grossman, of Stark county, Hon. J. H. Brigham, assistant secretary of agriculture, and Judge P. C. Young. The address of welcome was made by Alexander McDonald, president of the association. The music was furnished by the Peerless Mandolin club of this city.

NEW LIBRARIAN

Will Have Charge of the Columbiana Law Library.

Walter McVicker has been appointed by the Columbiana County Law Library association as librarian, to take the place of George T. Farrell, who resigned.

Mr. Farrell has been in charge of the law library ever since it was established, and has been faithful, always in his office during office hours, and ever pleasant and accommodating to any person who might call. He passed the examination several months ago, and will go into partnership with Charles S. Speaker, one of Columbiana county's best attorneys. He is a young man possessed of unusual ability.

GONE TO HARRISBURG.

Prof. O. S. Reed Will Call on Governor Hastings.

Prof. O. S. Reed left today for Harrisburg, where he will call upon Governor Hastings, and in person present him with the resolutions in which General Lyon post asks that Captain Palmer be given a commission.

Professor Reed does not know how long he will remain in Harrisburg, but he will probably stay there several days.

TOMORROW AT NOON

Must Contributions For Soldiers Be In.

The ladies of the Red Cross have been very successful in their efforts to gather contributions for Company E, and will send the boys a big box.

They desire the announcement made that all contributions must be at the parish house of St. Stephen's church Friday at noon.

The box will be sent on the train leaving here at 4:20 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. It is hoped it will be filled.

A DANGEROUS SPOT.

It May Cause the City a Damage Suit.

In Bradshaw avenue a sewer is being built, and not a great way from Walnut street the water has been playing havoc with the portion not already torn up.

A well known resident was going home last night and fell in the ditch. By a miracle he escaped injury. Had he been hurt the city would have been compelled to defend a damage action.

LOWERING A MAIN.

The Water Department Will Spend Some Money.

The water works force will tomorrow commence lowering the 10 inch main in Bradshaw avenue.

It is necessary that the main be lowered at least three feet and a half in order that a sewer may be placed in the street. The work will involve a considerable expenditure of money.

CAIN WAS SET FREE

When the Facts In the Case Became Known.

HE DID NOT STEAL A WATCH

But Kept It In His Possession. Although It Had Been Given Him to Pawn—Squire Hill Dismissed the Matter In a Hurry.

Constable Miller last evening arrested John Cain upon a charge of larceny preferred by Mrs. Jennie Gribben.

The defendant was accused of taking a gold watch belonging to Miss Maggie Gribben, and the case was heard this morning in the court of Squire Hill. The defendant was represented by Attorney R. G. Thompson while F. E. Grosshans looked after the case of the plaintiff.

The evidence produced went to show that Cain and the daughter of Mrs. Gribben were lovers, and that while Cain was in Newark the daughter had sent the watch to him and told him to pawn it and get what money he could get on it. This he failed to do, and still had the watch in his possession. He agreed to return the watch, and as there was no evidence to substantiate the charge Squire Hill dismissed the case at the cost of the plaintiff.

It will be remembered that several weeks ago Mrs. Gribben appeared at the mayor's court and had Cain arrested for abducting her daughter, but the case was also dismissed.

ORDERED TO SANTIAGO.

Fifth Regular Infantry Must Leave at Once.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—[Special]—Orders were issued today for the Fifth regular infantry to proceed at once to Santiago. They are to take the place of troops recently withdrawn, and will aid in governing the city.

The Russian Wolf Hound.

Faroff Russia, where winters are so severe that but for a few months in the entire year are the fields free from snow, is the home of a breed of dogs known there as the Borzoi, or Psovoi. The dogs are grand in aspect, with long, flowing coats of silken texture that defy the terrible cold, and they are built on lines that speak volumes for the antiquity of their origin. In this country they are known as Russian wolf hounds. England is the country that has perhaps done most for the breed. Some 15 years ago the Briton secured the best that Russia had and bred them with the exceeding judgment he displays in such matters. He today possesses beyond question some of the grandest living. Within the past few years, however, Germany has made most wonderful strides in breeding these dogs, and, together with the Briton, has brought them very rapidly to the fore.—Outing.

A Wonderful Map.

The ordnance survey map of England, which contains over 108,000 sheets, and which has cost $1,000,000 a year for 20 years to keep up to date, is said to be the largest map in the world. The scale varies from ten feet to one-eighth of an inch to the mile. The details are so minute that sheets having a scale of 25 inches show every hedge, fence, wall, building and even every isolated tree in the country.

One Definition.

"What is your idea of a political economist?"

"Well," replied Senator Sorghum reflectively, "there's lots of different kinds. But my idea of the genuine article is the man who manages to put by enough while he has an office to pay the expense of getting it for another term."—Washington Star.

TWO SOLDIERS DEAD

The Eighth Lost a Corporal Last Tuesday.

HON. R. W. TAYLER IN WASHINGTON

He Went There For the Purpose of Seeing What Could Be Done to Have the Boys Sent Home, but Learned the Movement Was Already Started.

General Shafter has reported to the war department that six deaths occurred among the troops at Santiago from August 12 to 16, and two were members of the Eighth Ohio.

Ward Wilford, of Company B, died last Monday of remittent malarial fever, and Corporal John S. Lee, of Company G, died the next day of yellow fever. These were the last deaths before the regiment left for home.

A special from Washington contains this information:

"Representative Robert W. Tayler, of the Liverpool district, was in the city today to add his influence to the hurry movement in the interests of the transportation of the Eighth Ohio regiment to a more salubrious climate than that of the vicinity of Santiago. He found that everything possible had been done to facilitate the transportation of the boys of 'McKinley's Own,' as indeed, he had anticipated by his arrival here. Mr. Tayler had the honor to be present at the White House during the exchange of courtesies between President McKinley and President Faure, of the French Republic, in connection with the opening of the new French cable."

Clerk McNutt and Deputy Supplee are at Township Line today.

NO TRIAL.

The Defendant Paid and the Case Ended.

The case of Allie Dailey, against whom a charge of assault and battery was made by Mary J. Potts, on behalf of her daughter, Agnes Potts, has been settled without coming to trial.

Last evening the defendant called at the office of Justice Rose and paid a fine of $5.60, which settled the case.

Narrow Escape.

The work of relaying the water main in Pennsylvania avenue is progressing slowly. Yesterday afternoon one of the workmen narrowly escaped serious injury owing to a large portion of the ditch caving in.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

A BIG CROWD.

Politicians, Farmers and City Folk Are There In Great Numbers Enjoying the Day.

The annual Township Line picnic is being held today at Smith's grove, and as usual is largely attended by an immense number of farmers, while politicians and prospective candidates from various parts of the county are present to greet their country cousins.

Every livery rig in the city was engaged before today, and many people who intended to attend the picnic were compelled to remain at home.

The speakers of the day were Hon. J. Grossman, of Stark county, Hon. J. H. Brigham, assistant secretary of agriculture, and Judge P. C. Young. The address of welcome was made by Alexander McDonald, president of the association. The music was furnished by the Peerless Mandolin club of this city.

NEW LIBRARIAN

Will Have Charge of the Columbiana Law Library.

Walter McVicker has been appointed by the Columbiana County Law Library association as librarian, to take the place of George T. Farrell, who resigned.

Mr. Farrell has been in charge of the law library ever since it was established, and has been faithful, always in his office during office hours, and ever pleasant and accommodating to any person who might call. He passed the examination several months ago, and will go into partnership with Charles S. Speaker, one of Columbiana county's best attorneys. He is a young man possessed of unusual ability.

GONE TO HARRISBURG.

Prof. O. S. Reed Will Call on Governor Hastings.

Prof. O. S. Reed left today for Harrisburg, where he will call upon Governor Hastings, and in person present him with the resolutions in which General Lyon post asks that Captain Palmer be given a commission.

Professor Reed does not know how long he will remain in Harrisburg, but he will probably stay there several days.

TOMORROW AT NOON

Must Contributions For Soldiers Be In.

The ladies of the Red Cross have been very successful in their efforts to gather contributions for Company E, and will send the boys a big box.

They desire the announcement made that all contributions must be at the parish house of St. Stephen's church Friday at noon.

The box will be sent on the train leaving here at 4:20 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. It is hoped it will be filled.

A DANGEROUS SPOT.

It May Cause the City a Damage Suit.

In Bradshaw avenue a sewer is being built, and not a great way from Walnut street the water has been playing havoc with the portion not already torn up.

A well known resident was going home last night and fell in the ditch. By a miracle he escaped injury. Had he been hurt the city would have been compelled to defend a damage action.

LOWERING A MAIN.

The Water Department Will Spend Some Money.

The water works force will tomorrow commence lowering the 10 inch main in Bradshaw avenue.

It is necessary that the main be lowered at least three feet and a half in order that a sewer may be placed in the street. The work will involve a considerable expenditure of money.

CAIN WAS SET FREE

When the Facts In the Case Became Known.

HE DID NOT STEAL A WATCH

But Kept It In His Possession, Although It Had Been Given Him to Pawn—Squire Hill Dismissed the Matter In a Hurry.

Constable Miller last evening arrested John Cain upon a charge of larceny preferred by Mrs. Jennie Gribben.

The defendant was accused of taking a gold watch belonging to Miss Maggie Gribben, and the case was heard this morning in the court of Squire Hill. The defendant was represented by Attorney R. G. Thompson while F. E. Grosshans looked after the case of the plaintiff.

The evidence produced went to show that Cain and the daughter of Mrs. Gribben were lovers, and that while Cain was in Newark the daughter had sent the watch to him and told him to pawn it and get what money he could get on it. This he failed to do, and still had the watch in his possession. He agreed to return the watch, and as there was no evidence to substantiate the charge Squire Hill dismissed the case at the cost of the plaintiff.

It will be remembered that several weeks ago Mrs. Gribben appeared at the mayor's court and had Cain arrested for abducting her daughter, but the case was also dismissed.

ORDERED TO SANTIAGO.

Fifth Regular Infantry Must Leave at Once.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—[Special]—Orders were issued today for the Fifth regular infantry to proceed at once to Santiago. They are to take the place of troops recently withdrawn, and will aid in governing the city.

LOST FIFTY.

General Merritt's Victory Was Not a Bloodless One.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—[Special]—General Merritt has cabled to the war department the fact that Manila has surrendered, adding that our loss amounted to 50.

Card of Thanks.

The thanks of the memorial chapel committee are hereby tendered to each and every member of the cast of the "Middleman" for their patient, untiring energy and great kindness in the production of that beautiful play; to the audiences who so kindly patronized it, and to all others who rendered assistance.

COMMITTEE.

Sent a Spanish Coin.

Fireman Terrence is the possessor of a Spanish coin. It was sent him by Private Morley several weeks ago and was received at the fire station last Monday. It represents what an American would call a ten cent piece, and is about as large as a dime.

The Fine Was Paid.

The water works department yesterday filed a complaint before Mayor Bough against R. J. Craven for making a connection to their mains without a permit.

He was taken before the mayor, where he was fined.

Y. M. C. A. flag raising postponed until tomorrow night.

Named It Klondike.

A coal boat sunk by the John A. Wood near Shonsetown several months ago and raised during the past few weeks, has been brought to this city. The coal is covered with a yellow mud and has already been named Klondike.

Mr. Beck In Town.

Charles E. Beck, of Carrollton, deputy internal revenue inspector, was in the city today. He came last evening, and this morning had gone before anyone had a chance to speak to him. He was here several days last week.

New Telephone Directory.

The new telephone directory will soon be issued by the office in this city. Manager Swaney stated yesterday that it was possible the books would be issued before Sept. 1. Over 300 subscribers are listed.

Father Smyth Will Be There.

Among the speakers at the flag raising at the Young Men's Christian association, tomorrow evening, will be Father Smyth.

The Russian Wolf Hound.

Faroff Russia, where winters are so severe that for a few months in the entire year are the fields free from snow, is the home of a breed of dogs known there as the Borzoi, or Psovoi. The dogs are grand in aspect, with long, flowing coats of silken texture that defy the terrible cold, and they are built on lines that speak volumes for the antiquity of their origin. In this country they are known as Russian wolf hounds. England is the country that has perhaps done most for the breed. Some 15 years ago the Briton secured the best that Russia had and bred them with the exceeding judgment he displays in such matters. He today possesses beyond question some of the grandest living. Within the past few years, however, Germany has made most wonderful strides in breeding these dogs, and, together with the Briton, has brought them very rapidly to the fore.—Outing.

A Wonderful Map.

The ordnance survey map of England, which contains over 108,000 sheets, and which has cost $1,000,000 a year for 20 years to keep up to date, is said to be the largest map in the world. The scale varies from ten feet to one-eighth of an inch to the mile. The details are so minute that sheets having a scale of 25 inches show every hedge, fence, wall, building and even every isolated tree in the country.

One Definition.

“What is your idea of a political economist?”

“Well,” replied Senator Sorghum reflectively, “there’s lots of different kinds. But my idea of the genuine article is the man who manages to put by enough while he has an office to pay the expense of getting it for another term.”—Washington Star.

Complaining of Boys.

There is a great deal of complaint about a crowd of small boys that infest the corner of Jethro and Lisbon streets, and make life miserable for the residents.

TWO SOLDIERS DEAD

The Eighth Lost a Corporal Last Tuesday.

HON. R. W. TAYLER IN WASHINGTON
He Went There For the Purpose of Seeing What Could Be Done to Have the Boys Sent Home, but Learned the Movement Was Already Started.

General Shafter has reported to the war department that six deaths occurred among the troops at Santiago from August 12 to 16, and two were members of the Eighth Ohio.

Ward Wilford, of Company B, died last Monday of remittent malarial fever, and Corporal John S. Lee, of Company G, died the next day of yellow fever. These were the last deaths before the regiment left for home.

A special from Washington contains this information:

“Representative Robert W. Tayler, of the Liverpool district, was in the city today to add his influence to the hurry movement in the interests of the transportation of the Eighth Ohio regiment to a more salubrious climate than that of the vicinity of Santiago. He found that everything possible had been done to facilitate the transportation of the boys of ‘McKinley’s Own,’ as indeed, he had anticipated by his arrival here. Mr. Tayler had the honor to be present at the White House during the exchange of courtesies between President McKinley and President Faure, of the French Republic, in connection with the opening of the new French cable.”

THREE BAD ACCIDENTS

Harry Kelly Was Hurt While Boarding a Car.

CHARLES MULHERIN WAS HURT

And Was Unconscious For Two Hours, but He Will Recover—Frank Shea and Henry Ament Were Hurt at Columbian Park.

Harry Kelley, of Wellsville, met with a serious accident, last evening, while on his way home, and as a result is now under the care of a physician.

Kelley is employed by the telephone company as an inspector, and at 6 o'clock last evening was waiting for a car at the corner of Drury lane and Washington street. The motorman of car No. 5 had stopped the car to allow several passengers to get on. Kelley was the last, and as he caught the hand rail the current was turned on, causing the car to start with a jerk. Kelley had not yet secured a footing, and as he saw the car was not going to stop he let go, but not before he was dragged 30 feet. He got up and walked back to the steps of the First National bank, where he found it impossible to go farther. His right knee was cut about two inches in the cap, and the calf of the leg was badly bruised. He was assisted to the office of the company, where his injuries were partially dressed by William Moore. He was then put on a car and taken to his home.

Charles Mulherin, employed at a livery stable, was kicked over the heart last evening shortly before 7 o'clock by a horse owned by Doctor Toot.

The doctor had telephoned for the horse, and Mulherin was sent to hitch it in the buggy. As he entered the horse kicked him, knocking him across the stable. Several men working a short distance away ran to him and picked him up, carrying him to the room where he stayed. He was unconscious for two hours and all efforts of a physician to revive him were of no avail. An examination showed that while no bones were broken he suffered several hemorrhages.

This morning he was resting easy and he will recover.

Mulherin lives in Summittville and has been working in this city about two years.

A horse attached to a sulky and driven by Robert Walters ran away at Columbian park yesterday afternoon. It dashed into Frank Shea and Henry Ament as they were coming down the stretch on bicycles. The wheels were broken, and Shay had a severe cut on his head. Ament suffered a hole through one ear, but rode in two races after the accident. The sulky was demolished.

SUED THE SPECIALTY.

An Insurance Company Is After Money.

LISBON, Aug. 18. — [Special] — Jacob F. Deemer has filed a petition asking for $1,000 damages from John Post, claiming that Aug. 13 he struck, beat and wounded him. The parties are from Salem.

A. A. Sparks, as receiver of the Security Mutual Insurance Co., has brought action against the Specialty Glass Co., of Liverpool, asking $284.37, claimed on an insurance policy issued March 8, 1895. It is the same amount the Fidelity company sued for a short time ago.

Frank D. Taylor has sued Taylor Temple, asking for partition of lots 119, 120, 159 in Hanover. He claims a three-fourth interest.

Twenty-one deeds and mortgages were left for record with Recorder Crosser yesterday. It is an increase over recent business. The following are from Liverpool:

Ida M. Palmer to R. D. Stevenson, part of lot 1,058, $500. Richard Barlow to T. J. Kerr, lots 41 and 47, $2,200. J. W. Nott to J. Orr lot 2,879, $1,200.

THE LAST MEETINGS

Will Be Held by Rev. Geo. H. Vibbert This Evening.

Rev. Geo. H. Vibbert delivered an excellent talk at the First Presbyterian church last night, his audience being much pleased with his arguments favoring temperance.

The gentleman will this evening hold the last meetings of the series. He will speak in the Diamond at 7:30 o'clock on "When the Saloons Are Shut," and at 8 o'clock will speak in the lecture room of the First U. P. church taking as his subject "Women and Temperance."

The gentleman has spoken to many people since he came to the city and much good has been done. He should be received by a large audience tonight.

RECOVERED THE BAGGAGE.

It Was Lost In New York but Was Later Found.

When Miss Martin, of East End, attended the Young People's convention at Saratoga, she went to New York City on her way coming home.

Her telescope was left in the baggage room of the Pennsylvania station in New York. She returned to the city thinking the baggage had been checked. After waiting several days for its arrival Baggage Agent G. W. Smith notified General Baggage Agent Bently, of Pittsburgh, to look after the telescope. After considerable telegraphing the telescope was received in this city yesterday and is now at the baggage room.

RIVER RUMORS.

A report has been in circulation among the rivermen in this city to the effect that the Urania has been withdrawn from the Kanawha trade, and will be tied in at Ironton next week.

It is also stated that Captain Ben Young is about to close a deal whereby he will become owner of the boat.

FASHION AND FABRIC.

The trimmed skirt appears to advance more rapidly and more generally in favor than the draped or overskirted styles.

All the round hats this season which tilt over the face, almost concealing the eyes, have very wide, low set, flaring trimmings on the front and sides.

Tinted horse chestnut blossoms are very prettily worn on beige colored beach hats of milan braid trimmed with fleecy lace and brown satin ribbon.

Many of the black and white silk mulls, silk dotted batistes and figured organdie muslins, are made with a circular skirt and trimmed with countless narrow ruches made of black mousseline de soie or black satin ribbon.

For the early autumn there are shown some pretty Paquin boat models in silk or satin, slightly longer than the spring and summer shapes, cut either in continuous lengths from neck to hem or finished with applied basques.

Some of the most stylish summer tailor costumes worn at Newport this season for morning drives, beach walks, etc., are made of smooth, fine Irish linen trimmed with rows of white braid or linen lace insertions and edgings.

Satin striped zephyr goods are very dainty and attractive this season, with plain white or neutral stripes in satin finish and woven about an inch and a half apart and filled in with little checks or lines of pink, violet, cel blue, mauve, yellow or gray.

Many really beautiful dresses for the summer have been formed by using the partly worn silk gowns of past seasons for the foundation for new outer dresses of muslin, net, grenadine, etamine and other transparent or semi-transparent textiles.—New York Post.

THE KINETOSCOPE.

Nobody has any fears that the Spaniards will invade Alaska, but the Klondike is being mined.—Boston Globe.

Of the 16,000 claims staked out by prospectors along the Yukon and its tributaries not more than 200 are said to be worth anything.—Omaha Bee.

Henry Watterson is an expert phrase-maker, but he never made a better one than his latest, which is, "The United States is the trustee of civilization."—Indianapolis Journal.

European nations may acquire our superior guns and armor plate, but they cannot acquire by purchase our man behind the gun. He belongs to us, and there is none like him.—Indianapolis News.

What we don't understand about the Roentgen ray is how it will always apparently make transparent all the other substances you want to find.—Lowell Courier.

The battle of Santiago is considered to have proved the superiority of American armor plating and artillery, and it is believed that in the future European nations will give larger orders to American makers for armor, guns and the like.—Berlin Cor. London Mail.

According to late advices from Havana, life in that city is extraordinarily gay and blithesome. The place is about as frisky and frolicsome as the Kentucky mule that proved football with a can of nitroglycerine, not knowing the precise nature of its contents.—New York Mail and Express.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Remove dead and mildewed twigs at sight. Besides looking bad, they impede the light.

Nearly all of the rusts, mildew, smuts and rots that injure our crops are of a fungoid growth.

Do not go to an extreme and prune too much. Leaves are to a tree what lungs are to the body.

Slow growing trees and vines should be set on richer ground and fast growing trees on poorer ground.

To secure a good crop of gooseberries or currants the main thing is to keep them well trimmed and thinned out.

Dead wood is a deadly burden to a living tree. Letting the dead limbs remain robs the live part of needed sap.

Dwarf apples not only occupy little ground, but they come early into bearing, according to the variety to which they are grafted.

Dwarf apples are especially desirable for small yards or gardens where not much room can be spared, and yet some apples are wanted every year.—St. Louis Republic.

SPANISH FLOUNCES.

Indiscretion is the greater part of valor with Spain.—Washington Star.

The king of Spain is an example of how hopelessly a young man's career may be wrecked by bad company.—Washington Star.

One of the marvels of this war has been the manner in which General Weyler has been able to retain his martial ardor.—Pittsburg Times.

A Madrid correspondent says that "the best people of Spain are the least demonstrative in their hostility against America." Certainly; the best people of Spain are underground.—Chicago Times-Herald.

The suggestion already made that we annex Spain should not be pressed. A colonial government for the acquisition would be expensive, and the natives are not sufficiently civilized to justify admitting their territory as a state.—San Francisco Bulletin.

SIMPLE SALVE.

The newest treatment for typhoid fever is simply pure olive oil given internally.

Never read or sew or write immediately after coming from comparative darkness into a bright light if you have good eyes and would keep them good.

Sufferers from neuralgia are warned by a medical writer not to drink tea, but to partake freely of coffee into which the juice of a lemon has been squeezed.

A cross baby is cross for some good reason. Let it lie or play as many hours a day as possible in the warm, dry sand or on the earth. The effect will be immediate and better than medicine.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (FlatIron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant, English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5 cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

UNION LABELS.

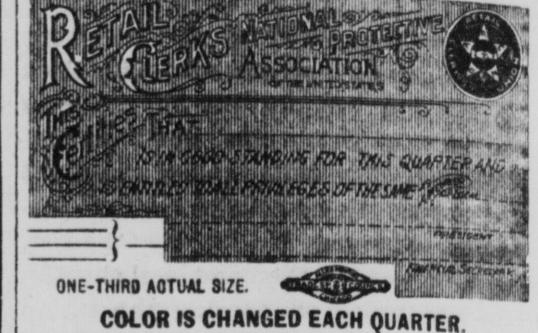

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark, when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

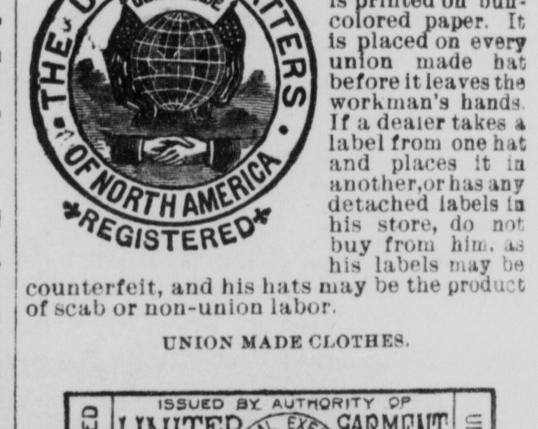

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any dealers' labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

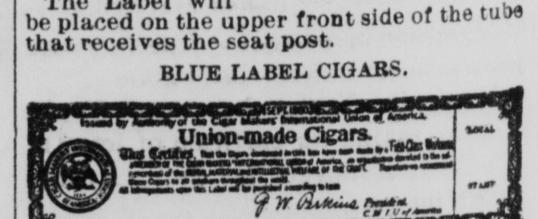

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pale green, bordered by gold.

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.

This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.

The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

SOME VERY GOOD RACES

Amused the Crowd at Columbian Park.

A GOOD EXHIBITION MILE

Wheelmen Had the Call and Made Very Good Time—Logan and Bott Had It Almost All Their Own Way, and Carried Off the Principal Prizes.

The races at Columbian park yesterday afternoon was largely attended, and resulted as follows:

Match pacing race, best two in three—McKinley first, Invicta third. Time, 2:28, 2:42.

One-mile open, colored bicycle race—Fred Howard first, George Washington second, George Brown third. Time, 3:11.

One-mile open bicycle race—William Bott first, H. Logan second, Charley Stubbins third. Time, 2:39.

Two-mile open bicycle race—H. Logan first, W. Bott second, Charley Stubbins third. Time, 5:27.

H. Rinehart gave an exhibition mile with a green horse. The first half was made in 1:10 and the mile in 2:28.

Five mile open bicycle race—W. Bott, first; H. Logan, second; C. Stubbins, third. Time 14:26.

One-half mile dash, running race—Elenora, W. T. Tebbutt, first; William Clay, second; Truby, W. T. Tebbutt, third. Time 37%.

One mile dash, running race—Clay, first; Elenora, second. Time 2:08.

THE LAST MEETINGS

Will Be Held by Rev. Geo. H. Vibbert This Evening.

Rev. Geo. H. Vibbert delivered an excellent talk at the First Presbyterian church last night, his audience being much pleased with his arguments favoring temperance.

The gentleman will this evening hold the last meetings of the series. He will speak in the Diamond at 7:30 o'clock on "When the Saloons Are Shut," and at 8 o'clock will speak in the lecture room of the First U. P. church taking as his subject "Women and Temperance."

The gentleman has spoken to many people since he came to the city and much good has been done. He should be received by a large audience tonight.

RECOVERED THE BAGGAGE.

It Was Lost In New York but Was Later Found.

When Miss Martin, of East End, attended the Young People's convention at Saratoga, she went to New York City on her way coming home.

The telescope was left in the baggage room of the Pennsylvania station in New York. She returned to the city thinking the baggage had been checked. After waiting several days for its arrival Baggage Agent G. W. Smith notified General Baggage Agent Bently, of Pittsburgh, to look after the telescope. After considerable telegraphing the telescope was received in this city yesterday and is now at the baggage room.

RIVER RUMORS.

A report has been in circulation among the rivermen in this city to the effect that the Kanawha has been withdrawn from the Kanawha trade, and will be tied in at Ironton next week.

It is also stated that Captain Ben Young is about to close a deal whereby he will become owner of the boat.

FASHION AND FABRIC.

The trimmed skirt appears to advance more rapidly and more generally in favor than the draped or overskirted styles.

All the round hats this season which tilt over the face, almost concealing the eyes, have very wide, low set, flaring trimmings on the front and sides.

Tinted horse chestnut blossoms are very prettily worn on beige colored beach hats of milan braid trimmed with flicle lace and brown satin ribbon.

Many of the black and white silk mulls, silk dotted batistes and figured organdie muslins, are made with a circular skirt and trimmed with countless narrow ruches made of black mousseline de soie or black satin ribbon.

For the early autumn there are shown some pretty Paquin coat models in silk or satin, slightly longer than the spring and summer shapes, cut either in continuous lengths from neck to hem or finished with applied basques.

Some of the most stylish summer tailor costumes worn at Newport this season for morning drives, beach walks, etc., are made of smooth, fine Irish linen trimmed with rows of white braid or linen lace insertions and edgings.

Satin striped zephyr goods are very dainty and attractive this season, with plain white or neutral stripes in satin finish and woven about an inch and a half apart and filled in with little checks or lines of pink, violet, ciel blue, mauve, yellow or gray.

Many really beautiful dresses for the summer have been formed by using the partly worn silk gowns of past seasons for the foundation for new outer dresses of muslin, net, grenadine, etamine and other transparent or semidiphantous textiles.—New York Post.

HELPING THE COMPANY

Trades Council Last Night
Donated $50

TO THE NEW GLASS CONCERN

And Advised All Local Unions to Help the Cause—The Council Will Turn Out In Parade on Labor Day—New Delegates Were Seated.

There was a large attendance last evening at Trades council and some important business was transacted.

After the minutes were read and approved the credential committee reported upon the following names: Harvey McHenry, Sheridan McGavern, A. Cope, carpenters; Walter Bettridge, dippers; Joseph Gibbons, No. 22. The members were obligated and took their seats in the council.

Thomas Mumford and Rudy Ebeling, a committee who are soliciting funds for the proposed co-operative glass plant were present and asked the financial support of the council to aid them in their work. The council donated $50, and the delegates were asked to present the matter to the various locals and solicit funds. J. J. Weisend was appointed treasurer to take charge of all funds so contributed, and turn them over to the soliciting committee.

The council decided to turn out in a body on Labor day and will meet at their hall at 8 a. m. The delegates were instructed to ask each local to make a display in the parade and endeavor to have as many features as possible.

The council then transacted a great deal of business of a private nature and adjourned.

HANDSOME NEW CHURCH

Will Be Built For Rev. J. H. Norris In Pittsburgh.

Plans and specifications for the new church to be erected by the First Pentecostal congregation, Rev. J. H. Norris, pastor, were submitted to contractors yesterday for bids.

A lot 66x165 feet has been secured at Sycamore and Stanwix streets, Pittsburgh, on which the new building will be located. The new church will be 62x119 feet in dimensions. It will have a balcony entrance 36 feet wide, which, with a tower on each corner of the street, will give the building an imposing and handsome appearance. The auditorium will have a seating capacity of 600. The lecture room and galleries will seat 500 persons, and as these can be thrown into the auditorium, the total seating capacity of the church will be 1,100. On the same floor will be a library room and pastor's studio.

Reverend Norris, who has been attending campmeeting at Spring Grove, has returned to Pittsburgh.

WAS DRUNK

And Now Believes His Watch Was Stolen.

Last evening a man well under the influence of liquor was walking along Fifth street with his watch chain hanging from its fastening, but without a watch attached. Several men who knew the man stopped him and asked for the watch. He searched his clothes and being unable to find it said it was stolen.

The matter has not been reported to the police.

FINE WORK.

Mercer Is Doing Wonders In the Field.

Winnie Mercer is making a great record at short for the Washington team, and in yesterday's game made three runs, three hits and had six put-outs and six assists without an error. He also had two stolen bases.

If he can keep up that kind of work it is probable he will be given a regular place on the infield.

On the River.

Heavy rains at all points up the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers will cause a slight rise in the streams. This will do no more than uphold the present good packet stage. At present there is a good river between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati for the packets to operate. At Davis island dam last night the stage was 4.2 feet and falling.

The Queen City went down last night, and the Avalon is due down tonight.

The Cummings and Bedford are due up this evening and down tomorrow. The Keystone State is up tomorrow noon.

A Pleasant Picnic.

The mission band of the United Presbyterian church yesterday held their annual outing on the Virginia side. A pleasant time was spent.

THE LISTENER.

Captain John W. Philip of the battleship Texas is 58 years old and has been in the United States navy for 42 years.

Edward Silsbee, an American, has just presented to the Bodleian library a guitar which belonged to Shelley and which is referred to in his poem "To a Lady With a Guitar."

As a result of Baron Rothschild's first victory in a race for the Grand Prix de Paris with Leroi Soleil at Longchamps, he has given his winnings, 200,000 francs, to the poor of Paris.

Björne Björnson, Björnsterne Björnson's son, who is an actor and stage manager, has been appointed director of the new theater at Christiania. His name is a shade less awful than his father's.

The Rev. Albion W. Knight, rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church of Atlanta, has just accepted the presidency of the Bank of Florida at Jacksonville. He will hold his rectorship at the same time.

Admiral Camara is half English, his mother before marriage having been a Miss Livermore of Liverpool. Camara is a graduate of the naval academy of San Francisco. He is an ardent monarchist.

CUBA UNDER PEACE.

MINISTER PALMA ON THE FUTURE OF THE ISLAND.

SAYS FIRST WORK AFTER PEACE IS FEEDING OF NATIVES—THINKS CUBANS MAY WANT ANNEXATION ULTIMATELY—BELIEVES SPANIARDS SHOULD HAVE NO VOTE ON ANNEXATION.

Tomas Estrada Palma, delegate at large of the Cuban republic, said recently at the office of the Cuban junta in New York city, when asked what steps would be taken by his government upon the declaration of peace: "The first thing to be done by the Cuban patriots in America after the blockade has been raised will be to send immediate relief to the starving Cubans in the field. Money which otherwise would have been spent for arms and ammunition will be devoted to the purchase of food, clothing and medicine for the Cuban soldiers and for their families.

"Without raising the issue of who should govern Cuba, we feel that we will have the hearty co-operation of the United States government in this matter of relieving starvation. That comes first, as a humanitarian necessity. The relief will be sent immediately, with the permission of the American government, and, so far as the Cuban republic is concerned, for the present we will follow the custom of old by turning the swords into plowshares and try to get down to actual as well as theoretical peace as speedily as possible."

"What will the government of the republic of Cuba do as a government?" was asked. "The leading men of that government, from President Masso down, have implicit confidence in the declaration of the United States government that it went to war not for the acquisition of Cuba, but to free the island for the Cubans. Personally I believe that it is only a question of time when the people of Cuba will wish annexation, but at the present time there are many, especially among those who went into the field against the Spaniards, whose aim and ambition have been independence. Any policy of the United States which attempted to force annexation before the people were ready might cause considerable internal trouble."

"How soon after the declaration of peace do you think the question of annexation or independence could be brought up?" was asked. "It may take several months for the Spanish government to remove its soldiers from the island. After the Spanish soldiers have gone away there will be left only about 120,000 Spaniards. Many of these might renounce allegiance to the Spanish government. But assuming that there would remain 100,000 Spaniards on the island, that is a small number in comparison with the 1,200,000 native Cubans. While the Spanish troops are being removed I think that the United States government would be wise in consulting unofficially the wishes of the large native population. The American provisional government, which will no doubt be of a military character, can do much toward strengthening the gratitude which the native Cubans already feel for the United States for having freed them from the Spanish yoke. In what way the United States should try to get the opinion of the people of Cuba, whether by popular election or otherwise, is one of the problems which it will have to solve. But no matter in what way the American government goes about it it will always find the native Cubans not only willing but anxious to help the Americans in the solution of the problem."

"If there should be an election on the subject of annexation or independence, do you think the 100,000 Spaniards on the island ought to be allowed to vote?" "Certainly not," replied Mr. Palma. "It is true that they are part of the Cuban population, but their interests have never been with the Cubans. Only on one condition should any native Spaniard be allowed to vote in Cuba on any question, and that is that he should publicly renounce his allegiance to Spain."

"How about protecting the property of the Spaniards in Cuba?" "The honor and dignity of the native Cuban government would compel it to respect the property and persons of all inhabitants, even of the Spaniards." "How about the liberation of prisoners for political offenses?" "That will be the next desire on the part of the native Cubans after food, clothing and medicines have been supplied to the needy. The liberation of political prisoners is something which should come so quickly that we feel confident that the temporary American government on the island will liberate them all before the question of annexation or independence is brought up."

"How about the retention of Spanish officers in civil offices in Cuba?" "The native Cubans, who are as ten to one compared with the Spaniards numerically, would be much more easily governed by anybody but Spaniards. They would have very little faith in the profession of allegiance on the part of a Spanish officeholder."

"And as we know it will be the desire of the American government to rule Cuba temporarily with as much tranquillity as possible, we feel confident that after peace has been declared the temporary American government in Cuba will put men in office whose sympathy is with the native Cubans and who stand for the policy of liberty for which the American government went to war. By dismissing from office every native Spaniard and putting in office conservative Cubans all traces of Spanish government, so hateful to the native Cubans, will be removed. We have every confidence that the United States government will eventually turn over the island of Cuba to the people free and independent, and personally I believe that it will not be long after that that Cuba will be one of the many proud states of the Union."—New York Sun.

Mrs. Cleveland's Courtesy.

The following pretty story is told of Mrs. Grover Cleveland: At one of the public receptions given at the White House an old lady who was drawn up in the line that was pushing its way forward to shake hands with the president's wife dropped her handkerchief just before getting to Mrs. Cleveland. She was too old and rheumatic to stoop down and recover it, and those back of her in the line were too intent upon getting the one fleeting glimpse possible of the mistress of the White House to notice the old lady's loss, and the handkerchief was trampled upon roughly.

Just before the old lady reached her Mrs. Cleveland stepped out of her place and deftly picked up the handkerchief, tucked it in her dress and, taking her own fresh one, which was of the most delicate, dainty lace, smilingly handed it to the old lady with the sweet remark, "Please take mine, and when you get home send it back to me, will you?" And when the handkerchief came back to her Mrs. Cleveland returned that of the owner, freshly laundered, lying on the top of a beautiful box of rosebuds that came from the White House conservatory.

An Accommodating Neighbor.

Not long back Mr. X. moved into a new house, which had not before been occupied. The bell wires were rather stiff, and in consequence the bells gave no uncertain sound. This was particularly the case with the doorbell, whose clangor disturbed the whole house.

Mr. X. is a man of sensitive nerves. The tremendous jangle of the doorbell made him shudder, so he wrote in chalk above the handle of the doorpost, "Pull gently."

About 9 that evening there was a violent ringing. Somebody tugged at the bell as if he were going to pull it out by the roots. The noise was terrific. X. himself ran to the door in a rage and found his friend Z.

"What the dickens do you mean by ringing that way?" exclaimed X. indignantly. "Don't you see what's written there?"

"Yes," answered Z, "I do see—that's why I pulled so hard."

X. looked at the writing and saw, "Pull urgently." A passing wag had added the "ur." X. has now muffed the bell.—London Telegraph at the office of the Cuban junta in New York city, when asked what steps would be taken by his government upon the declaration of peace: "The first thing to be done by the Cuban patriots in America after the blockade has been raised will be to send immediate relief to the starving Cubans in the field. Money which otherwise would have been spent for arms and ammunition will be devoted to the purchase of food, clothing and medicine for the Cuban soldiers and for their families.

"Without raising the issue of who should govern Cuba, we feel that we will have the hearty co-operation of the United States government in this matter of relieving starvation. That comes first, as a humanitarian necessity. The relief will be sent immediately, with the permission of the American government, and, so far as the Cuban republic is concerned, for the present we will follow the custom of old by turning the swords into plowshares and try to get down to actual as well as theoretical peace as speedily as possible."

"What will the government of the republic of Cuba do as a government?"
was asked. "The leading men of that government, from President Masso down, have implicit confidence in the declaration of the United States government that it went to war not for the acquisition of Cuba, but to free the island for the Cubans. Personally I believe that it is only a question of time when the people of Cuba will wish annexation, but at the present time there are many, especially among those who went into the field against the Spaniards, whose aim and ambition have been independence. Any policy of the United States which attempted to force annexation before the people were ready might cause considerable internal trouble."

"How soon after the declaration of peace do you think the question of annexation or independence could be brought up?" was asked. "It may take several months for the Spanish government to remove its soldiers from the island. After the Spanish soldiers have gone away there will be left only about 120,000 Spaniards. Many of these might renounce allegiance to the Spanish government. But assuming that there would remain 100,000 Spaniards on the island, that is a small number in comparison with the 1,200,000 native
Cubans. While the Spanish troops are being removed I think that the United States government would be wise in consulting unofficially the wishes of the large native population.
The American provisional government, which will no doubt be of a military character, can do much toward strengthening the gratitude which the native Cubans already feel for the United States for having freed them from the Spanish yoke. In what way the United States should try to get the opinion of the people of Cuba, whether by popular election or otherwise, is one of the problems which it will have to solve. But no matter in what way the American government goes about it it will always find the native Cubans not only willing but anxious to help the Americans in the solution of the problem."

"If there should be an election on the subject of annexation or independence, do you think the 100,000 Spaniards on the island ought to be allowed to vote?" "Certainly not," replied Mr.
Palma. "It is true that they are part of the Cuban population, but their interests have never been with the Cubans.
Only on one condition should any native
Spaniard be allowed to vote in Cuba on any question, and that is that he should publicly renounce his allegiance to Spain."

"How about protecting the property of the Spaniards in Cuba?" "The honor and dignity of the native Cuban government would compel it to respect the property and persons of all inhabitants, even of the Spaniards." "How about the liberation of prisoners for political offenses?" "That will be the next desire on the part of the native Cubans after food, clothing and medicines have been supplied to the needy. The liberation of political prisoners is something which should come so quickly that we feel confident that the temporary American government on the island will liberate them all before the question of annexation or independence is brought up."

"How about the retention of Spanish officers in civil offices in Cuba?" "The native Cubans, who are as ten to one compared with the Spaniards numerically, would be much more easily governed by anybody but Spaniards. They would have very little faith in the profession of allegiance on the part of Spanish officeholders."

"And as we know it will be the desire of the American government to rule Cuba temporarily with as much tranquillity as possible, we feel confident that after peace has been declared the temporary American government in Cuba will put men in office whose sympathy is with the native Cubans and who stand for the policy of liberty for which the American government went to war. By dismissing from office every native Spaniard and putting in office conservative Cubans all traces of Spanish government, so hateful to the native Cubans, will be removed. We have every confidence that the United States government will eventually turn over the island of Cuba to the people free and independent, and personally I believe that it will not be long after that that Cuba will be one of the many proud states of the Union."—New

Mrs. Cleveland's Courtesy.

The following pretty story is told of Mrs. Grover Cleveland: At one of the public receptions given at the White House an old lady who was drawn up in the line that was pushing its way forward to shake hands with the president's wife dropped her handkerchief just before getting to Mrs. Cleveland.
She was too old and rheumatic to stoop down and recover it, and those back of her in the line were too intent upon getting the one fleeting glimpse possible of the mistress of the White House to notice the old lady's loss, and the handkerchief was trampled upon roughly.

Just before the old lady reached her
Mrs. Cleveland stepped out of her place and deftly picked up the handkerchief, tucked it in her dress and, taking her own fresh one, which was of the most delicate, dainty lace, smilingly handed it to the old lady with the sweet remark, "Please take mine, and when you get home send it back to me, will you?" And when the handkerchief came back to her Mrs. Cleveland returned that of the owner, freshly laundered, lying on the top of a beautiful box of rosebuds that came from the White House conservatory.

An Accommodating Neighbor.

Not long back Mr. X. moved into a new house, which had not before been occupied. The bell wires were rather stiff, and in consequence the bells gave no uncertain sound. This was particularly the case with the doorknob, whose clanger disturbed the whole house.

Mr. X. is a man of sensitive nerves.
The tremulous jangle of the doorknob made him shudder, so he wrote in chalk above the handle of the doorknob, "Pull gently."

About 9 that evening there was a violent ringing. Somebody tugged at the bell as if he were going to pull it out by the roots. The noise was terrific.
X. himself ran to the door in a rage and found his friend Z.

"What the dickens do you mean by ringing that way?" exclaimed X. indignantly. "Don't you see what's written there?"

"Yes," answered Z, "I do see—that's why I pulled so hard."

X. looked at the writing and saw "Pull urgently." A passing wag had added the "ur." X. has now muffed the bell.—London Telegraph.

HELPING THE COMPANY

Trades Council Last Night
Donated $50

TO THE NEW GLASS CONCERN

And Advised All Local Unions to Help the Cause—The Council Will Turn Out In Parade on Labor Day—New Delegates Were Seated.

There was a large attendance last evening at Trades council and some important business was transacted.

After the minutes were read and approved the credential committee reported upon the following names: Harvey McHenry, Sheridan McGavern, A. Cope, carpenters; Walter Bettridge, dippers; Joseph Gibbons, No. 22. The members were obligated and took their seats in the council.

Thomas Mumford and Rudy Ebeling, a committee who are soliciting funds for the proposed co-operative glass plant were present and asked the financial support of the council to aid them in their work. The council donated $50, and the delegates were asked to present the matter to the various locals and solicit funds. J. J. Weisend was appointed treasurer to take charge of all funds so contributed, and turn them over to the soliciting committee.

The council decided to turn out in a body on Labor day and will meet at their hall at 8 a. m. The delegates were instructed to ask each local to make a display in the parade and endeavor to have as many features as possible.

The council then transacted a great deal of business of a private nature and adjourned.

HANDSOME NEW CHURCH

Will Be Built For Rev. J. H. Norris In Pittsburgh.

Plans and specifications for the new church to be erected by the First Pentecostal congregation, Rev. J. H. Norris, pastor, were submitted to contractors yesterday for bids.

A lot 66x165 feet has been secured at Sycamore and Stanwix streets, Pittsburgh, on which the new building will be located. The new church will be 62x119 feet in dimensions. It will have a balcony entrance 36 feet wide, which, with a tower on each corner of the street, will give the building an imposing and handsome appearance. The auditorium will have a seating capacity of 600. The lecture room and galleries will seat 500 persons, and as these can be thrown into the auditorium, the total seating capacity of the church will be 1,100. On the same floor will be a library room and pastor's studio.

Reverend Norris, who has been attending campmeeting at Spring Grove, has returned to Pittsburgh.

And Now Believes His Watch Was Stolen.

Last evening a man well under the influence of liquor was walking along Fifth street with his watch chain hanging from its fastening, but without a watch attached. Several men who knew the man stopped him and asked for the watch. He searched his clothes and being unable to find it said it was stolen.

The matter has not been reported to the police.

FINE WORK.

Mercer Is Doing Wonders In the Inf- field.

Winnie Mercer is making a great record at short for the Washington team, and in yesterday's game made three runs, three hits and had six put-outs and six assists without an error. He also had two stolen bases.

If he can keep up that kind of work it is probable he will be given a regular place on the infield.

On the River.

Heavy rains at all points up the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers will cause a slight rise in the streams. This will do no more than uphold the present good packet stage. At present there is a good river between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati for the packets to operate. At Davis island dam last night the stage was 4.2 feet and falling.

The Queen City went down last night, and the Avalon is due down tonight.

The Cummings and Bedford are due up this evening and down tomorrow. The Keystone State is up tomorrow noon.

A Pleasant Picnic.

The mission band of the United Presbyterian church yesterday held their annual outing on the Virginia side. A pleasant time was spent.

CUBA UNDER PEACE.

MINISTER PALMA ON THE FUTURE OF THE ISLAND.

Says First Work After Peace Is Feeding of Natives—Thinks Cubans May Want Annexation Ultimately—Believes Spaniards Should Have No Vote on Annexation.

Tomas Estrada Palma, delegate at large of the Cuban republic, said recently at the office of the Cuban junta in New York city, when asked what steps would be taken by his government upon the declaration of peace: "The first thing to be done by the Cuban patriots in America after the blockade has been raised will be to send immediate relief to the starving Cubans in the field. LOCAL BREVIETIES.

Mr. and Mrs. Poland of this city, yesterday moved to Hollow Rock.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Money-penny, of California Hollow, a son.

The boys of the Columbian club and their friends will dance this evening.

Mrs. James Johnson, of Basil avenue, will leave tomorrow for a few weeks' stay at Mackinac.

Mrs. Hugh Maley, who has been in Alliance several days undergoing an operation, is expected home this evening.

This morning 33 baskets of ware were sent to Allegheny. It was the largest shipment of ware from the station for several weeks.

The Sebring Pottery company this morning made a large shipment of ware to Portland, Ore. The shipment almost filled a car.

Business is very slow at the office of the township trustees, and it has been several days since they have had a new application for aid.

Last evening A. Ditmore, field bishop of the Church of the Living God, preached in Sixth street between Jackson and Jefferson streets.

The towboat B. D. Wood passed up this morning, towing one empty flat. The boat was making slow time, as one of its engines was broken.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rinehart, Seventh street, was taken seriously ill last evening, and is still in a precarious condition.

This morning two lengths of pipe were placed in the Broadway sewer on the wharf. A workman from the city engineer's office did the work.

Nellis, the young son of Officer Mahony, who ran a wire nail in his right foot last Monday, is now able to be out. For two days he was unable to walk.

Next Tuesday a number of chicken fights will take place. The birds are owned by parties in this city, and considerable money is being placed on the result.

James Fox and Miss Lulu Millsack were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Ravine street. Mr. and Mrs. Fox will go to housekeeping immediately in this city.

Paul Rhoades, of the freight depot who sprained his back recently, will return to his work next week. As he is 57 years old the injury affected him more than was first thought.

James Irwin, of Illinois, is spending a few days in the city the guest of Deputy Sheriff Thomas Creighton. The men were school mates, and have not been together for a number of years.

The street force this morning began work cleaning the sidewalks in Eighth and Jethro streets. The pavements were covered in many places with dirt, and were sadly in need of cleaning.

A portion of the campers who have been spending the summer at a point opposite Walker have pulled up stakes and gone home. There is still one camp left but it will break up within the next two weeks.

Dr. J. C. Taggart and wife, Mrs. J. S. Wilson and Mrs. R. B. Stevenson, returned last evening from Saratoga, where they attended the national convention of the Young Peoples' societies of the U. P. church.

No arrests were made during the night or this morning, and during the night not one person was so drunk that they needed arrest. Mayor Bough came to his office early this morning, but as there was nothing for him to do he went to the Township Line picnic.

The street force are this afternoon filling holes and making gutters in McKinnon addition. The repairs were badly needed, as there has been a great deal of complaint from teamsters to the effect that it was almost impossible to get along some of the streets with a horse.

SHIRT WAISTS.

ARE determined to sell every shirt waist---but one way to do it, namely, to make the price so low that people will buy. A lot of shirt waists that were 50 and 59c, and good values at that, for 25c, but a few cents more than you pay for having them laundered.

A lot of dark colored shirt waists that were excellent values at 50c, for 39c.

The 75 and 79c shirt waists at 50c, the 98c and $1 waists at 65c, and 90c for the $1.25 waists.

Wrappers.

Still a few of the odds and ends in wrappers at 39c.

Will offer the $1 wrappers this week at 75c, the $1.25 wrappers at $1, the $2 wrappers at $1.40. We can save you money on wrappers.

Separate Skirts.

A nice, clean stock of these, but we must have the room they occupy, and are making prices on them which should close them out in a short time.

A black brocade skirt at 75c. A lot of $1.98 skirts for $1.50. A lot of $5 skirts for $3.98. A lot of $7.50 skirts for $6. A lot of $10 skirts for $8. A lot of $12.50 skirts for $10.

Crash Skirts.

Are offering the crash skirts at very low prices.

The 89c ones at 50c. The $1.25 ones at 90c. The $1.50 ones at 98c. The $2 and $2.25 ones at $1.25. A few crash suits at exactly half price. Also a few crash jackets that were $2.25, will close them out at $1.25. A few P. K. suits and skirts at low prices.

Summer Wash Goods.

All colored lawns and dimities at half price.

The 8c ones for 4c. The 10c ones for 5c. The 15c ones for 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. The 25c ones for 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. Organdie suit patterns that were \$4.50 for \$2.25.

New Fall Dress Goods.

A little early perhaps but you may want goods for a new skirt or suit, if so we believe we can suit you, as we have some of the choice things of the season here.

The Many Rich Prizes

Captured by Uncle Sam didn't drop into his hat through sheer luck---strength and shrewd judgment won them. Business successes are won in the same way. It isn't luck that enables us to offer you the most expert, scientific optical service to be found anywhere, at extremely low prices. It is full and perfect equipment, investment and enterprise. We employ a first class Oculist, a medical doctor especially educated in the treatment of the eye. When you come to us you take no chances, but are sure of first class service. Examination free of charge. Why not have the best?

THE NEWS REVIEW
ALL the News in the News Review.

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bonafide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

Mr. and Mrs. Poland of this city, yesterday moved to Hollow Rock.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Money-penny, of California Hollow, a son.

The boys of the Columbian club and their friends will dance this evening.

Mrs. James Johnson, of Basil avenue, will leave tomorrow for a few week's stay at Mackins.

Mrs. Hugh Maley, who has been in Alliance several days undergoing an operation, is expected home this evening.

This morning 33 baskets of ware were sent to Allegheny. It was the largest shipment of ware from the station for several weeks.

The Sebring Pottery company this morning made a large shipment of ware to Portland, Ore. The shipment almost filled a car.

Business is very slow at the office of the township trustees, and it has been several days since they have had a new application for aid.

Last evening A. Ditmore, field bishop of the Church of the Living God, preached in Sixth street between Jackson and Jefferson streets.

The towboat B. D. Wood passed up this morning, towing one empty flat. The boat was making slow time, as one of its engines was broken.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rinehart, Seventh street, was taken seriously ill last evening, and is still in a precarious condition.

This morning two lengths of pipe were placed in the Broadway sewer on the wharf. A workman from the city engineer's office did the work.

Nellis, the young son of Officer Mahony, who ran a wire nail in his right foot last Monday, is now able to be out. For two days he was unable to walk.

Next Tuesday a number of chicken fights will take place. The birds are owned by parties in this city, and considerable money is being placed on the result.

James Fox and Miss Lulu Millsack were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Ravine street. Mr. and Mrs. Fox will go to housekeeping immediately in this city.

Paul Rhoades, of the freight depot who sprained his back recently, will return to his work next week. As he is 37 years old the injury affected him more than was first thought.

James Irwin, of Illinois, is spending a few days in the city the guest of Deputy Sheriff Thomas Creighton. The men were school mates, and have not been together for a number of years.

The street force this morning began work cleaning the sidewalks in Eighth and Jethro streets. The pavements were covered in many places with dirt, and were sadly in need of cleaning.

A portion of the campers who have been spending the summer at a point opposite Walker have pulled up stakes and gone home. There is still one camp left but it will break up within the next two weeks.

Dr. J. C. Taggart and wife, Mrs. J. S. Wilson and Mrs. R. B. Stevenson returned last evening from Saratoga, where they attended the national convention of the Young Peoples' societies of the U. P. church.

No arrests were made during the night or this morning, and during the night not one person was so drunk that they needed arrest. Mayor Bough came to his office early this morning, but as there was nothing for him to do he went to the Township Lane picnic.

The street force are this afternoon filling holes and making gutters in McKinnon addition. The repairs were badly needed, as there has been a great deal of complaint from teamsters to the effect that it was almost impossible to get along some of the streets with a horse.

SHIRT WAISTS.

ARE determined to sell every shirt waist---but A one way to do it, namely, to make the price so low that people will buy. A lot of shirt waists that were 50 and 59c, and good values at that, for 25c, but a few cents more than you pay for having them laundered.

A lot of dark colored shirt waists that were excellent values at 50c, for 39c.

The 75 and 79c shirt waists at 50c, the 98c and $1 waists at 65c, and 90c for the $1.25 waists.

Wrappers.

Still a few of the odds and ends in wrappers at 39c.

Will offer the $1 wrappers this week at 75c, the $1.25 wrappers at $1, the $2 wrappers at $1.40. We can save you money on wrappers.

Separate Skirts.

A nice, clean stock of these, but we must have the room they occupy, and are making prices on them which should close them out in a short time.

A black brocade skirt at 75c. A lot of $1.98 skirts for $1.50. A lot of $5 skirts for $3.98. A lot of $7.50 skirts for $6. A lot of $10 skirts for $8. A lot of $12.50 skirts for $10.

Crash Skirts.

Are offering the crash skirts at very low prices.

The 89c ones at 50c. The $1.25 ones at 90c. The $1.50 ones at 98c. The $2 and $2.25 ones at $1.25. A few crash suits at exactly half price. Also a few crash jackets that were $2.25, will close them out at $1.25. A few P. K. suits and skirts at low prices.

Summer Wash Goods.

All colored lawns and dimities at half price.

The 8c ones for 4c. The 10c ones for 5c. The 15c ones for 7c. The 25c ones for 12c. Organdie suit patterns that were $4.50 for $2.25.

New Fall Dress Goods.

A little early perhaps but you may want goods for a new skirt or suit, if so we believe we can suit you, as we have some of the choice things of the season here.

14TH YEAR. NO. 60.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1898.

TWO CENTS

REBELS BARRED.

No Joint Occupation of Manila With Them.

SUCH INSTRUCTIONS SENT.

Merritt and Dewey Sent a Message Inquiring What to Do.

WERE TOLD TO TREAT ALL ALIKE.

Given Orders to Enforce Law and Order and to Deal the Same With All Law-Abiding Citizens—Insurgents and Spaniards on the Same Footing—It Is Thought Aguinaldo May Have Demanded the Right to Enter and Help Occupy Manila.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The two American commanders at Manila, Admiral Dewey and Major General Merritt, united in a joint dispatch, which was received here late yesterday afternoon, asking for instructions as to the manner of dealing with the various elements, particularly the insurgents, now that the city was occupied by the American forces. After a conference at the White House, in which Secretary Alger and Acting Secretary Allen participated, instructions were sent to the two American commanders. The text of the request for instructions and of the answer was not made public, but Secretary Alger summed up the instructions substantially as follows:

"The instructions are to enforce law and order, and to treat all law-abiding citizens alike." The instructions are practically the same as those sent Tuesday night to General Lawton. The latter order specifically stated that the insurgents must recognize the military occupation and authority of the United States and the cessation of hostilities proclaimed by this government. Doubtless the same rule is being applied to the insurgents under Aguinaldo, although it was not officially stated that such specific orders were made. It is said the joint dispatch from Dewey and Merritt did not in terms refer to Aguinaldo, nor did the instructions mention the insurgent leader by name. It is well understood, however, that the desire of the American commanders was to have instructions on the manner of dealing with the large and menacing forces of insurgents under Aguinaldo, who have surrounded Manila for many weeks and who it is thought may or have demanded the right to occupy the city with the American forces as the Cuban insurgents did at Santiago.

It had been thought in some quarters here that the showing heretofore made by the insurgents would lead to their receiving a certain amount of recognition, in the way of joint action between the United States forces and those of the insurgents, when the city was occupied. But the instructions sent last night are based on occupation by the United States alone, and as a high administration official summed up the situation:

"There shall be no joint action, except between Merritt and Dewey. They will maintain law and order and will treat insurgents and Spaniards alike, requiring all to observe peace and order."

THE MANGROVE'S FIGHT.

A Wonder the Little Vessel Was Not Wrecked by Spanish Shots In Caibarien Harbor.

KEY WEST, Aug. 18.—Further details have been received here as to the bombardment of the port of Caibarien, on the north coast of the province of Santa Clara, Cuba, last Sunday by the Mangrove.

The Mangrove left here last week to protect the landing of an expedition under Colonel Bozas, which had gone ahead on the schooners Adams and Delle. When she reached Santa Clara Key, near Caibarien, she found the Cuban party had safely disembarked, but feared the advance because of the presence of the Spanish gunboat Hernan Cortes and a smaller gunboat.

On Saturday afternoon the Mangrove anchored at Key Francis, just outside Caibarien, and as she lay there the Hernan Cortes came out and ran around the key to get a peer at her, scurrying back into the harbor as soon as she saw she was discovered. The Mangrove followed as far as the shoal water would permit.

The next morning Captain Stuart boldly entered the harbor. The Hernan Cortes was anchored near the shore. The small gunboat lay at the wharf.

The Hernan Cortes carried two 4.7-inch guns and four 1-pounders, while her smaller companion was armed with three 1-pounders and a Hotchkiss rapid-fire gun. Ashore were several 1-pounder field pieces, while the Spanish troops were armed with Mauser rifles.

The Mangrove, whose entire battery consists of only two 6-pounders, worked into a range of 2,000 yards. The channel was so narrow that only one gun could be fired at a time.

Plague Again Epidemic.

BOMBAY, Aug. 18.—The bubonic plague is again epidemic. There were 103 deaths officially reported last week.

A hot fire was poured at the American boat. Five or six shots fell on the Hernan Cortes' deck between the bow gun and amidships, scattering a body of men. Some of the latter must have been killed, although the Spaniards later denied that they suffered any loss.

Soon the Spaniards got the Mangrove's range and a veritable avalanche of shot and shell was hurled at her. It was nothing less than a miracle that her loss of life was not heavier.

In the midst of this, a boat with a flag of truce came out, bearing the news of the signing of the peace protocol.

A PEACE COMMISSIONER.

Senator Cushman K. Davis Has Accepted an Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Senator Cushman K. Davis, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, has accepted the tender of an appointment as a member of the Spanish-American peace commission.

TOWNS SURRENDERED.

Shafter Reported the Turning Over of Baracoa and Sagua de Tenamo to American Jurisdiction.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The war department yesterday received the following:

"SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Aug. 17.

Adjutant General, Washington:

"Major Miley has just returned from Baracoa and Sagua de Tenamo. At the two places there were 1,756 officers and men surrendered, 2,321 stands of arms and 413,000 rounds of ammunition, 5

Krupp guns, ranging in caliber from 5 inches down to 2 inches. Troops were very short of food, but 15 days' rations were given them by Major Miley and a large amount of Red Cross supplies landed at the same time at both places.

These troops knew nothing whatever of the destruction of Cervera's fleet, the fall of Santiago or any later events.

They accepted the situation, however, and appeared to be glad at the opportunity of getting home.

"Major Miley states that on the door of the commanding officer was posted a bulletin purporting to be a telegram from the naval commander at Manila informing Sagasta of his great victory over Dewey at Manila and Sagasta's thanks to him for the same. Country in the vicinity of these towns in the same condition as that here—utterly destroyed and grown up. Inhabitants said that in 18 months they would be able to harvest their crop of bananas, which is the principal product of Baracoa. A regiment of insurgents were found in the vicinity of each place camped within a few hundred yards of Spanish troops, calmly observing each other.

"SHAFTER, Major General."

BETWEEN TWO PRESIDENTS.

Messages Exchanged Over the New Cable From the White House to Presidential Palace in Havre.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—President McKinley and President Faure of France yesterday morning exchanged direct messages. The occasion was the opening of a new cable between Cape Cod, Mass., and Havre, on the French coast, and the wires were connected to effect a through circuit between the White House at Washington, and the presidential palace at Havre.

The message from M. Faure was as follows.

To His Excellency, Mr. McKinley, President of the United States of America:

"It affords me special pleasure to inaugurate the new submarine communication, which will unite more directly than heretofore our two countries, by addressing to you an expression of the feeling of sincere sympathy existing between the French republic and the republic of the United States. I desire also to renew to you, Mr. President, the assurance of my high esteem and constant friendship.

"FELIX FAURE."

President McKinley sent the following response:

To His Excellency, M. Faure, President of the Republic of France:

"I am happy to believe that every addition to the means of communication between our two countries can serve only to keep alive and to strengthen that feeling of cordial good will which has so strikingly characterized their relations, both in early and in recent times. Permit me, Mr. President, most heartily to reciprocate your expressions of esteem and friendship.

"WILLIAM MCKINLEY."

HAY HAS ACCEPTED.

He Said He Would Become Secretary of State.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—United States Ambassador Hay came to the embassy yesterday from the country, where he has been visiting, and after transacting some accumulated routine business, he returned to continue his visit. To the correspondent of the Associated Press, Colonel Hay said: "I have been offered and accepted the post of secretary of state. I shall leave London in about a month."

Plague Again Epidemic.

BOMBAY, Aug. 18.—The bubonic plague is again epidemic. There were 103 deaths officially reported last week.

BRAVE MEN FELL.

Six or Eight Americans Killed Before Manila.

ABOUT 40 WERE WOUNDED.

Naval Officer Said the Fighting in the Trenches Was Very Fierce.

SPANISH LOSS REPORTED LARGE.

California Red Cross Society Rendered Valuable Aid to the Sick and Wounded. Large American Ships Were Ordered to Cease Firing, After Bombarding About an Hour—Troops Surrendered Their Arms—Merritt Found Them in Line, When He Reached the Palace.

HONGKONG, Aug. 18.—The American collier Zafiro, from Manila, which arrived here Tuesday was anchored yesterday in Junk bay. She left Manila on the 14th. A typhoon was raging yesterday and it was impossible to land the mails with further details of the battle at Manila.

It was learned, however, from an American naval officer, that when Admiral Dewey, on Aug. 6, demanded the surrender of Manila within 48 hours, the Spanish commander replied that the insurgents being outside the walls, he had no safe place for the women and children who were in the city, and asked for 24 hours' delay. This Admiral Dewey granted.

At the expiration of the specified time, Admiral Dewey and General Merritt consulted and decided to postpone the attack.

On Aug. 13 the American squadron formed in line off Manila. The Olympia fired the first shot at the Malate fort. The shots of the Americans tell short and some time was occupied in finding the range. Then the Callao, one of the gunboats captured by Admiral Dewey from the Spaniards, got under the fort and sent in a hot fire. Great destruction was done with the rapid-fire guns. The fort failed to reply, but fired on the American troops that were storming the Spanish trenches. The large American ships were ordered to cease firing after an hour's work, owing to the failure of the fort to respond.

The fighting in the trenches was most fierce. Fifteen minutes after the Spaniards were driven to the second line of defenses they were forced to retreat to the walled city, where, seeing the uselessness of resistance, they surrendered and soon afterward a white flag was hoisted over Manila.

The Belgian consul at Manila, M. Andre, boarded the Olympia and returned with an American lieutenant to the Spanish military governor, who agreed to surrender. General Merritt proceeded to the palace at 3:30 o'clock and there found the Spaniards formed in line. The troops surrendered their arms, but the officers were permitted to retain their swords.

The American loss is reported to be six or eight killed and 40 wounded. The Spanish loss was considerable, but the exact numbers are not obtainable. The trenches are filled with badly wounded Spaniards. Manila is now under martial law, with General Merritt as military governor.

The California Red Cross society rendered valuable aid to the sick and wounded. Perfect order prevailed in Manila on the evening of Aug. 13.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—The Norddeutsch Algemein Zeitung explains that the Kaiserin Augusta, which brought away General Augusti from Manila, left the harbor after the surrender of the city, and asserts that the Spanish officers were allowed to go free, so that General Augusti was able to go whither he pleased.

"When Admiral von Diedrichs permitted him to go Hongkong on board the Kaiserin Augusta," says the Norddeutsch Algemein Zeitung, "it was by agreement by the American commander-in-chief, if, indeed, the German admiral considered such an agreement still necessary. Moreover, it is also observed that the Spanish troops at Manila may, by mutual consent, proceed to Spain or Hongkong."

ABOUT 7,000 PRISONERS.

Rear Admiral Dewey Reported the Taking of Manila to the Secretary of the Navy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Admiral Dewey's official announcement of the bombardment and surrender of Manila was received yesterday as follows:

"MANILA, Aug. 18.

Secretary Navy, Washington:

"Manila surrendered today to the American land and naval forces after a combined attack. A division of the squadron shelled the forts and entrenchments at Malate, on the south side of the city, driving back the enemy, our army advancing from that side at the same time. The city surrendered about 5 o'clock, the American flag being hoisted by Lieutenant Brumby. About 7,000 prisoners were taken. The squadron had no casualties, none of the vessels were injured.

"On Aug. 7 General Merritt and I formally demanded the surrender of the city, which the Spanish governor general refused.

JENKS NOTIFIED.

Pennsylvania Democrats Had a Big Meeting at Bedford—Denied Understanding With Quay.

BEDFORD, Pa., Aug. 18.—The Hon. George A. Jenks of Brookville was yesterday afternoon formally notified by D. C. DeWitt of Towanda that he is the standard bearer of the Democratic party in this state for the coming campaign. The convention was called to order about 2 o'clock in the afternoon by Levi McQuiston of Butler. D. C. DeWitt was then nominated and elected chairman of the convention. He then made the notification speech and appointed the following secretaries: R. E. Umbell, Uniontown; John S. Riley, Erie, and Joseph Howley of Allegheny, Erie. He then said in part:

"Gentlemen, by authority of the Democratic state convention held at Altoona on June 29 we were appointed a committee to notify you that the state convention, having full confidence of your ability, integrity and industry, unanimously made you its nominee."

He spoke further and said it has been stated in some newspapers in the eastern part of the state, but not in the western part, that M. S. Quay influenced the Altoona convention and that the nominee for governor and Quay have a friendly understanding.

This speech was followed by the speech of Mr. Jenks in which he denied very strongly the accusation. Mr. Jenks' speech was followed by that of Hon. William H. Sowden, candidate for attorney general, who made a very strong speech and said in part:

"We are and always were for our country first and party afterwards, for without a country there can be no need for any great political parties. We are all united in our support of President McKinley in the war with Spain. There were happily no differences of opinion amongst us upon this important question, and our country never presented a grander spectacle before the world than it did in the complete unification of all her citizens in our recently ended war with that foreign nation. The corruption and profligacy of the last two Republican legislatures cannot be successfully hidden from the people in this campaign under the slogan of the war, protection and sound money, for these matters are not now in a controversy in this commonwealth, so far as the same relate to national politics."

STONE TO THE FARMERS.

Pennsylvania Candidate Made a Speech at the Exposition Held at Mt. Gretna.

MOUNT GRETN, Pa., Aug. 18.—Col. W. A. Stone, the Republican candidate for governor, attended the Farmers' exposition, now in progress here, and was enthusiastically received.

Colonel Stone said in part: "They say Pennsylvania politics are corrupt. Did you make a mistake when you took the tax from your land and put it on corporations?"

"Did you make a mistake when you stood by sound money and gave 300,000 majority for McKinley? Where has this state made a mistake politically?"

She has not made any. There are not a true patriot who regrets

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING.

Methodist Protestants Elected a Board of Stewards.

At a congregational meeting after the prayer meeting at the Methodist Protestant church last night, the board of stewards for the conference year commencing next month, were elected. The board consisted of Bert Kauffman, James Vodrey, William Bettridge, Wesley Flemming, Louis Hardwick, Joel Taylor and Robert Burford.

After the election the securing of corporation papers for the church was presented. A committee was appointed to attend to the matter, and at the next meeting the papers will be presented. The election of trustees will be held immediately after the presentation of the papers.

The church at present is but $200 in debt, but this will be raised by the time conference meets, and a clear report will be presented to the body.

BOND ELECTION

Is Not Stirring the People In the City.

The bond election to be held next Saturday is arousing only a little interest, but the friends of the hospital project will make every effort to get the vote out.

The question of voting $15,000 to repair the streets will assist in getting the people to vote, and it is thought a great many persons will go to the polls on Saturday.

Big Freight Business.

Freight business at the depot yesterday was very good, and during the day a large number of cars were loaded and shipped from the outbound platform.

Business at the depot this morning was very brisk, and gave promise of being good all day. Receipts have been large this week, and it is noticeable that business at the depot is increasing.

CANCELING STAMPS.

MONEY FOR SOLDIERS.

As was announced in the News Review several days ago, contributions for the Red Cross society will be received at this office.

LEE AND WHEELER KISSED.

An Effecting Scene When the Two Met In Alger's Office.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—An effecting scene characterized the meeting yesterday in the office of Secretary Alger of Major Generals Wheeler and Lee. They are old friends and comrades in arms, but they had not met since the war began. Each grasped the other by both hands, and then General Lee drew his friend to his heart and they hugged and kissed each other regardless of the fact that many other persons were present. Secretary Alger was visibly affected.

Roosevelt to Resign.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—It is reported here that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, commanding the First volunteer cavalry, better known as the rough riders, will resign his military commission in a few days, but before doing so he will visit Washington for the purpose of conferring with the officials of the administration concerning the situation at Santiago, which resulted in forwarding the "round robin" petition for the transfer of the troops to the United States.

OIL TANK STRUCK.

5,000 Barrels of Fluid Destroyed Near Findlay, O., by Lightning.

FINDLAY, O., Aug. 18.—Lightning struck a large oil tank belonging to the Buckeye Pipe Line company, west of the city yesterday, completely destroying 25,000 barrels of oil. A terrific explosion occurred, which shook the buildings in this city.

The fire spread to outbuildings, track and fences, and destroyed 15 cars belonging to the Lake Erie and Western Railroad company. The total loss is estimated at $30,000.

TENTH RECRUITS TO SAIL.

War Department Has Ordered Them to Start on Saturday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The transport steamers Arizona and Scandia are under orders to sail. Word was received from the war department yesterday approving the recommendations of Major General Merriam, advising that these two vessels be sent to Manila, independent of any further call for troops from General Merritt. This move was recommended because the troops assigned to the Arizona are all detachments of regiments already detailed, and the Scandia is well adapted to the purpose of a hospital ship.

The Arizona will sail Saturday morning. Among the troops assigned to her are recruits for the Tenth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers.

TENNESSEE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 18.—The Republican state convention met yesterday in the senate chamber at the capitol. James A. Fowler of Clinton, East Tennessee, was nominated for governor by acclamation. The platform is chiefly devoted to demanding reforms in the administration of state affairs. It endorses the St. Louis platform and the administration of President McKinley.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 18.—At yesterday morning's session of the grand council Y. M. I. it was finally decided to hold biennial conventions hereafter. Father A. A. Lambing of Wilkinsburg addressed the delegates on the subject of higher education. The reports of officers showed that 22 councils had been added to the Pennsylvania jurisdiction during the year.

IRISH CATHOLIC BENEFICIAL UNION.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 18.—The delegates attending upon the convention of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union attended solemn high mass in the cathedral yesterday morning. The delegates then adjourned to Knights of Columbus hall, and the convention was called to order by President Duffy. The reports of the president, executive committee, secretary and treasurer were read and approved.

RED CROSS DAY IN PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 18.—The arrangements for Red Cross day in Pittsburgh are being rapidly perfected and interesting programs are being prepared for the people at the parks on that day. The 26th inst has been selected and it is expected by the committee to make it the greatest day Pittsburgh has ever enjoyed for any like purpose.

THANKS TO FRANCE.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—At the cabinet council yesterday morning the minister of foreign affairs, Mr. Delcasse, read dispatches from President McKinley and the queen regent of Spain, thanking the president and government of the French republic for their good offices in promoting negotiations. M. Delcasse added the governments at Washington and Madrid selected Paris as the scene of the negotiations for the final treaty of peace.

NEW M. P. PUBLISHER.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 18.—The Pittsburgh book directory of the Methodist Protestant board of publication held a meeting at the Methodist Protestant building, 422 Fifth avenue, yesterday to elect a successor to Prof. U. S. Fleming, who recently resigned as publishing agent to accept the post of superintendent of the public schools of Parkersburg, W. Va. The choice of the directory fell upon Francis W. Pierpont of this city.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Plans For the New Battleships—McLean's Real Estate Deal—Fireproof Wood In Torpedo Boats.

[Special Correspondence.]

Although the navy department has concluded that in the interest of better speed for the three new battleships to be built it cannot afford to defer the reception of bids beyond the period fixed in the original advertisement, bidders will have an opportunity to base estimates upon plans for battleships superior in speed to the Illinois type, which formed the basis of the original advertisements. Engineer In Chief Melville has prepared 11 separate and distinct sets of plans whereby higher speed can be realized in the new ships than the Illinois type possesses, and these plans will be sent to the great ship building firms which are likely to compete in order that they may submit bids based on them as well as upon the original Illinois designs.

As is usual in such cases, the advertisement permits ship builders to submit bids on the basis of their own plans or upon those of the department, so that the way is open for them to make use of these additional plans if they see fit, and the knowledge that the department will give preference in the award to the bidder promising the highest speed doubtless will influence them to accept some of these plans in their calculations.

The 11 plans contemplate speeds ranging from 16½ to 18 knots. Two of them provide for carrying 1,200 tons of coal, the same amount as the Illinois will carry, two of them change the present arrangements of bulkheads with the result of giving a speed of 17.4 knots and raising the radius of action at 10 knots speed from 5,432 miles to 6,460 in one case and to 5,643 in another. This is achieved by some improvements in the engines and by the adoption of a different type of boilers. One design reduces the coal capacity from 1,200 to 980 tons, but the radius of action is still in excess of that of the Illinois, being 5,630 miles, while provision is made for a maximum speed of 18 knots in an emergency.

McLean's Real Estate Deal.

One of the largest and most important real estate transactions which have for some time taken place in the District of Columbia was consummated the other day when deeds were placed on record transferring title to 63.37 acres of land on the Tenallytown road to Mr. John R. McLean from the Richmond syndicate, which concern, in turn, by deed from Mr. McLean, is made the owner of a valuable tract of land bounded by Nineteenth, Twentieth and S streets and Florida avenue, northwest. The tract acquired by Mr. McLean is valued in the transfer at $4,000 an acre, or about $254,000, while that which he deeds to the syndicate is estimated to be worth $1.50 per foot, or about $192,000. The difference between the two values is paid in cash by Mr. McLean. Included in the 63.37 acres are 1½ acres which Mr. McLean acquires from Mr. Charles C. Glover, which secures him a frontage on Arizona avenue.

Mr. McLean has for some time past leased the Newlands property on Woodley Lane road, and notwithstanding the fact that he has had nothing but a lease he has spent considerable money in beautifying the place. It is now understood that he will expend a large sum in improving his new possessions and will erect a handsome residence. It is believed that he does not, for a number of years to come at least, intend to subdivide the property, but will hold it for his own use and transform it into one of the handsomest residential properties in Washington. Revenue stamps to the value of $454.50 were required to be placed upon the deeds when filed.

Fireproof Torpedo Boats.

Secretary Long has revised the plans upon which the 16 new torpedo boat destroyers are to be built as a result of the observations made by naval officers during the sea battle at Santiago. The interior finishings will be of fireproof wood, instead of oak, as originally intended. It was pointed out to Secretary Long that the gunners on the Spanish torpedo boats Furor and Pluton were compelled to abandon their posts because fire broke out in the cabins, which were made of inflammable wood. Although it is considered improbable that the new vessels will be called upon to fight in the near future, Secretary Long thought it best to be prepared for such exigencies as were encountered by the Spaniards.

Allotments Are Not Bonds.

Secretary Gage has recently decided that under the law designated depositories of government funds may treat the notices of allotments of the new bonds as government securities. In view of the fact that the bonds will not be actually issued for some weeks many national banks have sought to use their allotments as the basis of circulation, as they desire to sell their high interest bonds and substitute the low rate securities. Comptroller Dawes has decided that this cannot be done, as the law specifically requires that circulation must be based on the deposit of registered bonds, and mere allotments will not do.

WELLSVILLE.

HE WAIVED A HEARING

A. C. Fogo's Case Will Go to Common Pleas.

SETTLED IN A HURRY TODAY

Mayor Dennis Placed the Bond at $1,000. A Crowd Had Gathered In the Hope of Hearing Sensational Testimony, but Were Disappointed—All the News.

A. C. Fogo, late superintendent of the water works, appeared before Mayor Dennis, this morning for the purpose of facing the charge made against him by Mr. Anderson, a member of the board of water commissioners. A crowd had gathered, anticipating an interesting morning, for it was fully expected the former superintendent would begin to fight the matter in the first court. They were disappointed, however, for Fogo promptly waived a hearing and was bound to the grand jury in the sum of $1,000. His attorney, Mr. Lones, was not present.

An Accident.

Yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, as Frank Hooper was driving from his home near Salineville to that place, a seat containing three little girls, who had been visiting at his home, overturned, and they were precipitated to the ground. Nora Hill, aged 12 years, was injured, and at first much alarm was felt concerning her condition, but a physician was called and after a thorough examination it was found no bones were broken.

A Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. David Griffith took place at 3 o'clock today. Reverend C. W. Stephenson conducted the services. Mrs. Griffith's death occurred Tuesday night. The little babe left is in a precarious condition, and its death would not be unexpected at any time.

The News of Wellsville.

Reverend and Mrs. R. C. Ackerman who have been visiting Mrs. Ackerman's father, Daniel Tarr, returned today to their home in Elizabeth, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wild, who formerly lived in Wellsville, are removing from Cleveland to East Liverpool.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fassett expect to go to Augusta next Saturday for a month's visit with Mrs. Fassett's parents.

Miss Mary Faulk, who has been visiting George Wells, left today for her home in Mansfield.

E. S. Kelley went to Cleveland on business yesterday.

Mrs. Mary McGregor has returned to her home in Wooster, after a visit with relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. George Schmidt and Miss Kate Boyce, of Liverpool, and Mrs. Mary Donaldson and her two daughters took the morning train for Canton, where they will attend the wedding of Harvey Smith and Miss Bessie Frease.

Mrs. Theodore Apple left this morning for Springfield, where she will inspect the Odd Fellows Orphans' home at that place.

Dr. and Mrs. Harden and their daughters, Misses Marie and Helen, left this morning for their home in Wellsville, W. Va.

John Peters, editor of the Keystone Endeavours of Pittsburg, and his sister, Miss Sue Peters, stopped over to greet friends on their way home from a visit with relatives in Empire.

Miss Goodlin, of Empire, who has been visiting friends in town, left for her home yesterday. Miss Goodlin will stop for a short time at Hollow Rock campmeeting with her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Burnett.

Mrs. Mary McFarland, of Winnipeg Manitoba, arrived yesterday to spend a few weeks with John Rose and other relatives in the Scotch settlement.

Mrs. Alfred Connell arrived home yesterday after a three weeks' visit among relatives.

Mrs. James Brick and daughter, Miss Mary Brick, and Mrs. W. L. Fogo are spending the day with Mrs. W. G. Bright, Bridgeport.

Reverend Patterson, wife and daughter, of Orange, N. J., are visiting Mrs. T. M. Patterson, corner Commerce and Eleventh streets.

Mrs. Dobbs, who was sent by kind friends to a hospital in Columbus for medical treatment about a month ago, was sent home and her case was pronounced incurable. In addition she had developments of mental aberration, and this morning her husband took her to Newburg, where it is hoped she will recover.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, AUGUST 18.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.

THERE are congressmen and congressmen. Hon. R. W. Tayler has missed no opportunity to do all he could for the Eighth Ohio, but other representatives whose districts are represented in the regiment, have not been heard of in that connection.

CUBA has for generations been the home of the oppressed, but now that this government is to have much to do with its development all Europe is hurrying to invest in the island. There is no doubt about its future. The next few years will clear away the debris left by war, and the island will blossom like a garden.

THE European nations who seem so anxious to have something to say concerning the settlement of the Philippine question, may not urge their claims when they realize that Uncle Sam has said he would settle his differences with Spain without interference. It may require a few weeks for them to understand the real meaning of that statement, but in the end they will understand.

A GOOD POLICY.

When President McKinley determined to leave the Philippine matter unsettled until the country could have time to give it some thought he adopted a policy of wisdom. The subject is most important since a great question is involved, one which has never yet been passed upon by this government. To settle it at once, before the fire of the Spanish war has subsided, would leave a possibility of error, but to give it mature deliberation means that the country will not be placed in the wrong path.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The state committee has not yet decided when the fall campaign will be commenced, but as soon as the Democrats have decided on a ticket the good work will begin. From present indications it will be pushed with vigor as soon as started, and in every part of Ohio will be heard the voices of honest Republicans arguing the cause of Republicanism. It should be a good campaign, one that will show the claims of the party and present its views in such a manner as to bring about a great majority next fall. The people are expecting it.

MUSTERING OUT.

Now that the country has no more use for a large army thousands of volunteers are to be mustered out and returned to the occupations they left when President McKinley summoned them to protect the honor of the nation. While there may be found in some commands a strong military spirit that will oppose the movement, there is no reason why these patriotic Americans should longer desire to remain in the service now that their work is done. They were enlisted for a purpose, and that purpose has been attained. Nothing remains but peace, and Uncle Sam wants no great army in time of peace.

Albert A. Craig Killed at Columbian Park.

WAS THROWN FROM HIS HORSE

He Was Riding in a Running Race When the Animal Left the Track Near the Entrance to the Place, and Dashing Toward a Tree Suddenly Took Another Course—The Young Man Was Thrown Against the Tree In Such Manner as to Kill Him Almost Instantly—The Remains Taken to His Old Home For Interment.

A most distressing accident brought to a sudden end the races at the library picnic at Columbian park yesterday afternoon, resulting as it did in the death of Albert A. Craig, a highly esteemed young man of the city.

The program for the day was almost ended, and the crowd in the grand stand had wearied of their seats, and about 6 o'clock taken places along the track in order that they might see the finish of a running race that had long been predicted would be a most exciting event. In order that they might be ready to catch the first car to the city, a number of persons were standing near the ticket office that marks the entrance to the park. Others still retained their seats in the grand stand, and all were ready for the finish.

The horses started from the usual place, and came dashing down the track, taking the turn at the grand stand splendidly and jumping into the stretch with all the fire and animation seen in a race so exciting. W. T. Tebbutt had entered two horses, the bay and the black that have been so often seen on the streets of the city as to be known to almost everyone. The former was ridden by Davy Brown, a well known colored jockey of the city, and Mr. Craig, who is noted as a daring rider, bestrode the other. The last horse was a sorrel owned by William Clay and handled by his nephew who bears the same name.

The other horses had immediately after the start assumed advantageous positions on the track, and Mr. Craig and his mount were on the outside tearing along like mad for a good place when the racers took the stretch. All went well and the fiery animal was well in hand until a point near the end of the turn and not far from the entrance to the park was reached. There the animal left the track and shot like an arrow across the turf. Endeavoring to pull him back and leaning to the left Mr. Craig was doing his best, although the horse was making straight for a tree which stands close to the ticket office. Without an instant of warning it had quickly veered in another direction, the rider had lost his balance and was wrapped about the tree. One foot was disengaged from the stirrup and the ankle of the other seemed to be broken. He dropped to the ground without a word, while the horse, freed from its burden, galloped on for a short distance and then stopped.

Col. H. R. Hill, R. L. Andrews and a number of others were standing close to where the young man fell and all hastened to his side. He was tenderly raised, but those about him knew in a moment that he would never leave the spot where he fell alive. He was not unconscious, but opening his eyes looked intelligently for a moment into Colonel Hill's face. Then his eyes closed and in spite of all attempts to prolong his life, he died in a few minutes. Mr. Andrews at once went to the telephone and ordered a car forwarded from the power house at once, also notifying the fire station in order that the patrol might be at the foot of Broadway when the car arrived. He did not know then that the unfortunate young man was dead. When the car arrived the body was tenderly lifted to it and taken to West's undertaking rooms where it was prepared for burial.

Meantime the crowd had grasped the horror of the situation, and had silently and sadly gone to the city, but not far away another scene was being enacted. Seated there during the afternoon were Mrs. W. T. Tebbutt and Miss Craig, sisters of the dead horseman. None had cheered him more enthusiastically to victory, and the shock caused by his sudden death was almost more than they could bear. They were accompanied by Mr. Tebbutt who soon learned the extent of Mr. Craig's injuries and communicated the facts to the ladies, who were taken to their home in Thompson place.

Albert A. Craig was born in Coburg, Ont., 23 years ago last week, and came here to take a responsible position under

Mr. Tebbutt in the office of the Potters' Protective association in the spring of 1897. He was an efficient office man and popular with all who knew him. Being an excellent horseman he frequently rode the big black horse which took him to his death, and could be frequently seen on the streets enjoying his favorite pastime. Once before while at the park the horse bolted at the same place, but Mr. Craig was then able to keep him to the course and there was no accident. He did the same thing again yesterday in the first race, and was quickly brought back.

The remains will be taken this evening to Coburg for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Tebbutt and Miss Craig have the sympathy of the entire community in their great loss for the young man was the light of the household. His sudden death is to them a great loss, but they have the knowledge that a great many friends in the city deeply deplore the awful happening which took from them a man they were glad to call friend.

A Painter's Conscience.

In the course of some reminiscences of Sir Edward Burne-Jones a correspondent of The Westminster Gazette remarks: Those who are not "offended" by the paradoxes of Charles Lamb would have delighted in Burne-Jones' play of humor and imagination. Let me justify my reference to Charles Lamb.

I once returned to Burne-Jones some books which he had lent me 30 years before, writing to him to the effect that if it was base to keep borrowed books so long it was heroic to return them after such long possession as might well breed the sense of ownership. In reply he said:

"The return of those books has simply staggered me. It has also pained me, for it seems to raise the standard of morality in these matters and perhaps to sting the susceptible consciences of book borrowers. I have many borrowed books on my shelves. I would rather the owners should die than that I should have to think about these things and return them. I have two costly volumes that were lent to me before that little incident of ours, which, you may remember, was in Red Lion square. I hope the owner is no more, for I simply will not give them up. And you have made me uneasy and have helped to turn an amiable rascal into a confirmed villain. Your affectionate NED."

Slang Puzzled Him.

Edouard Remenyi, the great violinist, used to say that some of the hardest studying he ever did in his life began after an experience he had in Detroit.

"On my first tour of this country," he delighted in telling, "I worked unceasingly to acquire a knowledge of the language and got on fairly well. But the slang that I found so prevalent baffled me more than anything else. I gave a performance in Detroit one night and met with a reception that warmed my heart toward her people. Among other things, this appeared in one of the papers next morning: 'Here an ugly, little, bowlegged chap, whose clothes hung loosely about his ungainly person, waddled to the footlights. But, sakes alive, how he did play the fiddle!'

"Now, I couldn't make out what that 'sakes alive' meant, so I timidly approached a gentlemanly citizen, told him of my inability to grasp the meaning of the slang, and asked him if the expression was intended to be complimentary.

"He kindly read it and replied, 'Well, I should snicker.'

"I was more bewildered than ever, and from that time on made the study of slang one of my chief occupations."

A Forgetful Bishop.

An English bishop, noted for the shortness of his memory, was one day waiting at a station for a train. Being in good time, his lordship was indulging in a solitary trot up and down the platform. While thus engaged, he came in contact with a young officer whose face seemed familiar to him. Meeting him again, he said "Good morning."

At the next encounter the bishop stopped, saying, "How is your father?" The gallant soldier replied, "He has been dead for many years." The bishop tried again with the query, "How is your mother?" "Well," said the officer, smiling, "I think she must be all right, or you would have heard had she been indisposed."

The bishop walked away, but his curiosity was greatly aroused. Seeing the station master, he at once asked him if he could enlighten him as to who the young officer was with whom he had been conversing. "Oh," replied the station master, "why, your lordship, that's the Duke of Connaught." —Household Words.

The Verse Will Follow.

At last fate and the American army have hit upon a word to rhyme with "Saco." It is the name of the Porto Rican town of Yauco. It has been 270 years that the pine has waited for the palm—and even the rhyme doesn't seem able to suggest a verse.—Biddeford (Me.) Journal.

ARTILLERY TERMS.

All artillery may be divided into two main classes, heavy and light. Heavy artillery is called also garrison artillery. Heavy artillery guns are placed permanently in forts, and the men who handle them form foot artillery batteries and regiments. Light artillery refers to guns not permanently emplaced—that is, light enough to be taken from place to place by means of horses and maneuvered by hand. In our army the light artillery gunners ride on the caissons and gun carriages. In horse artillery the gunners ride horses, so that a horse artillery battery has a great many more horses than a light battery. We have no horse batteries in our army. A field battery is a light battery. A flying battery is a horse battery. Siege guns are between heavy and light artillery.

They are intended to be placed permanently for the time being and are brought to their places by teams, but they are not maneuvered as light guns are.—New York Sun.

"Nunny Dunny."

In his "Highways and Byways in Devon and Cornwall" ARTHUR M. INGRAM way tells of a fragment of antiquity that still "lingers in the neighborhood of Redruth, where the country people, when they see a ghost, say, 'Nunny dunny!'" and he adds, "I leave the riddle to be solved by any one who is curious enough to undertake a useful piece of practice in unraveling the corruption of language."

The phrase is probably a corruption of "In nomine Domini," the Latin for "In the name of the Lord," a phrase so familiar in the devotion of the middle ages.

THREE BAD ACCIDENTS

Harry Kelly Was Hurt While Boarding a Car.

CHARLES MULHERIN WAS HURT

And was unconscious for two hours, but he will recover—Frank Shea and Henry Ament were hurt at Columbian Park.

Harry Kelley, of Wellsville, met with a serious accident, last evening, while on his way home, and as a result is now under the care of a physician.

Kelley is employed by the telephone company as an inspector, and at 6 o'clock last evening was waiting for a car at the corner of Drury lane and Washington street. The motorman of car No. 5 had stopped the car to allow several passengers to get on. Kelley was the last, and as he caught the hand rail the current was turned on, causing the car to start with a jerk. Kelley had not yet secured a footing, and as he saw the car was not going to stop he let go, but not before he was dragged 30 feet. He got up and walked back to the steps of the First National bank, where he found it impossible to go farther. His right knee was cut about two inches in the cap, and the calf of the leg was badly bruised. He was assisted to the office of the company, where his injuries were partially dressed by William Moore. He was then put on a car and taken to his home.

Charles Mulherin, employed at a livery stable, was kicked over the heart last evening shortly before 7 o'clock by a horse owned by Doctor Toot.

The doctor had telephoned for the horse, and Mulherin was sent to hitch it in the buggy. As he entered the horse kicked him, knocking him across the stable. Several men working a short distance away ran to him and picked him up, carrying him to the room where he stayed. He was unconscious for two hours and all efforts of a physician to revive him were of no avail. An examination showed that while no bones were broken he suffered several hemorrhages.

This morning he was resting easy and he will recover.

Mulherin lives in Summittville and has been working in this city about two years.

A horse attached to a sulky and driven by Robert Walters ran away at Columbian park yesterday afternoon. It dashed into Frank Shea and Henry Ament as they were coming down the stretch on bicycles. The wheels were broken, and Shay had a severe cut on his head. Ament suffered a hole through one ear, but rode in two races after the accident. The sulky was demolished.

SUED THE SPECIALTY.

An Insurance Company Is After Money.

LISBON, Aug. 18. —[Special]—Jacob F. Deemer has filed a petition asking for $1,000 damages from John Post, claiming that Aug. 13 he struck, beat and wounded him. The parties are from Salem.

A. A. Sparks, as receiver of the Security Mutual Insurance Co., has brought action against the Specialty Glass Co., of Liverpool, asking $284.37, claimed on an insurance policy issued March 8, 1895. It is the same amount the Fidelity company sued for a short time ago.

Frank D. Taylor has sued Taylor Temple, asking for partition of lots 119, 120, 159 in Hanover. He claims a three-fourth interest.

Twenty-one deeds and mortgages were left for record with Recorder Cropper yesterday. It is an increase over recent business. The following are from Liverpool:

Ida M. Palmer to R. D. Stevenson, part of lot 1,058, $500. Richard Barlow to T. J. Kerr, lots 41 and 47, $2,200. J. W. Nott to J. Orr lot 2,879, $1,200.

Clerk McNutt and Deputy Supplee are at Township Line today.

NO TRIAL.

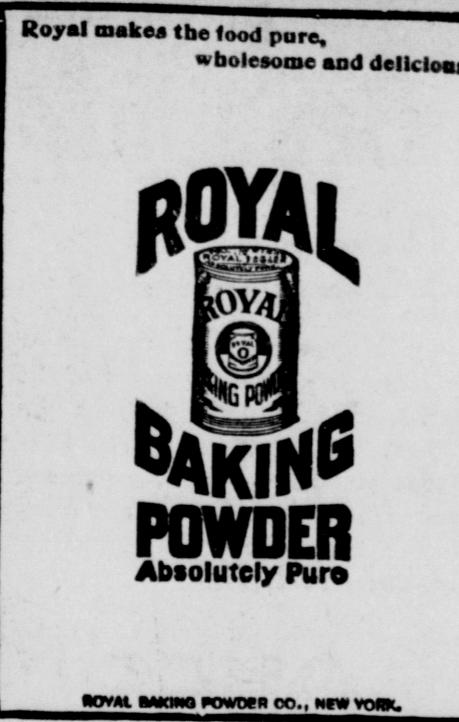

The Defendant Paid and the Case Ended.

The case of Allie Dailey, against whom a charge of assault and battery was made by Mary J. Potts, on behalf of her daughter, Agnes Potts, has been settled without coming to trial.

Last evening the defendant called at the office of Justice Rose and paid a fine of $5.60, which settled the case.

NARROW ESCAPE.

The work of relaying the water main in Pennsylvania avenue is progressing slowly. Yesterday afternoon one of the workmen narrowly escaped serious injury owing to a large portion of the ditch caving in.

A BIG CROWD.

Politicians, Farmers and City Folk Are There In Great Numbers Enjoying the Day.

The annual Township Line picnic is being held today at Smith's grove, and as usual is largely attended by an immense number of farmers, while politicians and prospective candidates from various parts of the county are present to greet their country cousins.

Every livery rig in the city was engaged before today, and many people who intended to attend the picnic were compelled to remain at home.

The speakers of the day were Hon. J. Grossman, of Stark county, Hon. J. H. Brigham, assistant secretary of agriculture, and Judge P. C. Young. The address of welcome was made by Alexander McDonald, president of the association. The music was furnished by the Peerless Mandolin club of this city.

NEW LIBRARIAN

Will Have Charge of the Columbian Law Library.

Walter McVicker has been appointed by the Columbian County Law Library association as librarian, to take the place of George T. Farrell, who resigned.

Mr. Farrell has been in charge of the law library ever since it was established, and has been faithful, always in his office during office hours, and ever pleasant and accommodating to any person who might call. He passed the examination several months ago, and will go into partnership with Charles S. Speaker, one of Columbian county's best attorneys. He is a young man possessed of unusual ability.

GONE TO HARRISBURG.

Prof. O. S. Reed Will Call on Governor Hastings.

Prof. O. S. Reed left today for Harrisburg, where he will call upon Governor Hastings, and in person present him with the resolutions in which General Lyon post asks that Captain Palmer be given a commission.

Professor Reed does not know how long he will remain in Harrisburg, but he will probably stay there several days.

TOMORROW AT NOON

Must Contributions For Soldiers Be In.

The ladies of the Red Cross have been very successful in their efforts to gather contributions for Company E, and will send the boys a big box.

They desire the announcement made that all contributions must be at the parish house of St. Stephen's church Friday at noon.

The box will be sent on the train leaving here at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. It is hoped it will be filled.

A DANGEROUS SPOT.

It May Cause the City a Damage Suit.

In Bradshaw avenue a sewer is being built, and not a great way from Walnut street the water has been playing havoc with the portion not already torn up.

A well known resident was going home last night and fell in the ditch. By a miracle he escaped injury. Had he been hurt the city would have been compelled to defend a damage action.

LOWERING A MAIN.

The Water Department Will Spend Some Money.

The water works force will tomorrow commence lowering the 10 inch main in Bradshaw avenue.

It is necessary that the main be lowered at least three feet and a half in order that a sewer may be placed in the street. The work will involve a considerable expenditure of money.

CAIN WAS SET FREE

When the Facts In the Case Became Known.

HE DID NOT STEAL A WATCH

But Kept It In His Possession, Although It Had Been Given Him to Pawn—Squire Hill Dismissed the Matter In a Hurry.

Constable Miller last evening arrested John Cain upon a charge of larceny preferred by Mrs. Jennie Gribben.

The defendant was accused of taking a gold watch belonging to Miss Maggie Gribben, and the case was heard this morning in the court of Squire Hill. The defendant was represented by Attorney R. G. Thompson while F. E. Grosshans looked after the case of the plaintiff.

The evidence produced went to show that Cain and the daughter of Mrs. Gribben were lovers, and that while Cain was in Newark the daughter had sent the watch to him and told him to pawn it and get what money he could get on it. This he failed to do, and still had the watch in his possession. He agreed to return the watch, and as there was no evidence to substantiate the charge Squire Hill dismissed the case at the cost of the plaintiff.

It will be remembered that several weeks ago Mrs. Gribben appeared at the mayor's court and had Cain arrested for abducting her daughter, but the case was also dismissed.

The Russian Wolf Hound.

Faroff Russia, where winters are so severe that but for a few months in the entire year are the fields free from snow, is the home of a breed of dogs known there as the Borzoi, or Psovoi. The dogs are grand in aspect, with long, flowing coats of silken texture that defy the terrible cold, and they are built on lines that speak volumes for the antiquity of their origin. In this country they are known as Russian wolf hounds. England is the country that has perhaps done most for the breed. Some 15 years ago the Briton secured the best that Russia had and bred them with the exceeding judgment he displays in such matters. He today possesses beyond question some of the grandest living. Within the past few years, however, Germany has made most wonderful strides in breeding these dogs, and, together with the Briton, has brought them very rapidly to the fore.—Outing.

A Wonderful Map.

The ordnance survey map of England, which contains over 108,000 sheets, and which has cost $1,000,000 a year for 20 years to keep up to date, is said to be the largest map in the world. The scale varies from ten feet to one-eighth of an inch to the mile. The details are so minute that sheets having a scale of 25 inches show every hedge, fence, wall, building and even every isolated tree in the country.

TWO SOLDIERS DEAD

The Eighth Lost a Corporal Last Tuesday.

HON. R. W. TAYLER IN WASHINGTON

He Went There For the Purpose of Seeing What Could Be Done to Have the Boys Sent Home, but Learned the Movement Was Already Started.

General Shafter has reported to the war department that six deaths occurred among the troops at Santiago from August 12 to 16, and two were members of the Eighth Ohio.

Ward Wilford, of Company B, died last Monday of remittent malarial fever, and Corporal John S. Lee, of Company G, died the next day of yellow fever. These were the last deaths before the regiment left for home.

A special from Washington contains this information:

Representative Robert W. Tayler, of the Liverpool district, was in the city today to add his influence to the hurry movement in the interests of the transportation of the Eighth Ohio regiment to a more salubrious climate than that of the vicinity of Santiago. He found that everything possible had been done to facilitate the transportation of the boys of "McKinley's Own," as indeed, he had anticipated by his arrival here. Mr. Tayler had the honor to be present at the White House during the exchange of courtesies between President McKinley and President Faure, of the French Republic, in connection with the opening of the new French cable.

THE LAST MEETINGS

Will Be Held by Rev. Geo. H. Vibbert This Evening.

Rev. Geo. H. Vibbert delivered an excellent talk at the First Presbyterian church last night, his audience being much pleased with his arguments favoring temperance.

The gentleman will this evening hold the last meetings of the series. He will speak in the Diamond at 7:30 o'clock on "When the Saloons Are Shut," and at 8 o'clock will speak in the lecture room of the First U. P. church taking as his subject "Women and Temperance."

The gentleman has spoken to many people since he came to the city and much good has been done. He should be received by a large audience tonight.

RECOVERED THE BAGGAGE.

It Was Lost In New York but Was Later Found.

When Miss Martin, of East End, attended the Young People's convention at Saratoga, she went to New York City on her way coming home.

Her telescope was left in the baggage room of the Pennsylvania station in New York. She returned to the city thinking the baggage had been checked. After waiting several days for its arrival Baggage Agent G. W. Smith notified General Baggage Agent Bently, of Pittsburgh, to look after the telescope. After considerable telegraphing the telescope was received in this city yesterday and is now at the baggage room.

River Rumors.

A report has been in circulation among the rivermen in this city to the effect that the Urania has been withdrawn from the Kanawha trade, and will be tied in at Ironton next week.

It is also stated that Captain Ben Young is about to close a deal whereby he will become owner of the boat.

FASHION AND FABRIC.

The trimmed skirt appears to advance more rapidly and more generally in favor than the draped or overskirted styles.

All the round hats this season which tilt over the face, almost concealing the eyes, have very wide, low set, flaring trimmings on the front and sides.

Tinted horse chestnut blossoms are very prettily worn on beige colored beach hats of milan braid, trimmed with fiddle lace and brown satin ribbon.

Many of the black and white silk muslins, silk dotted batistes and figured organdie muslins, are made with a circular skirt and trimmed with countless narrow ruches made of black mousseline de soie or black satin ribbon.

For the early autumn there are shown some pretty Paquin boat models in silk or satin, slightly longer than the spring and summer shapes, cut either in continuous lengths from neck to hem or finished with applied basques.

Some of the most stylish summer tailor costumes worn at Newport this season for morning drives, beach walks, etc., are made of smooth, fine Irish linen trimmed with rows of white braid or linen lace insertions and edgings.

Satin striped zephyr goods are very dainty and attractive this season, with plain white or neutral stripes in satin finish and woven about an inch and a half apart and filled in with little checks or lines of pink, violet, cel blue, mauve, yellow or gray.

Many really beautiful dresses for the summer have been formed by using the partly worn silk gowns of past seasons for the foundation for new outer dresses of muslin, net, grenadine, etamine and other transparent or semidaphanous textiles.—New York Post.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant, English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER

to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

UNION LABELS.

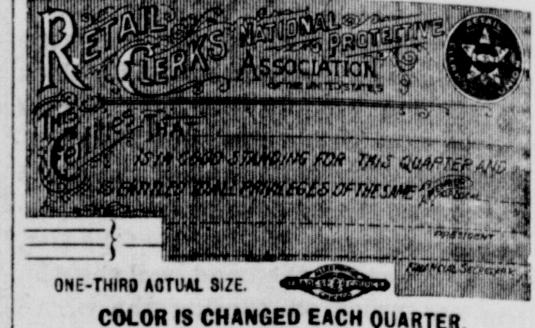

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS,

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' Union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeyman Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

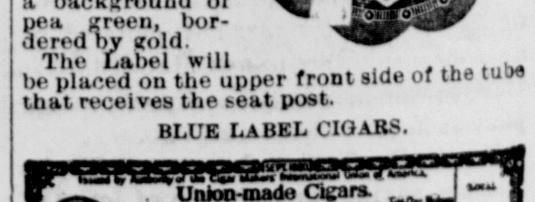

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

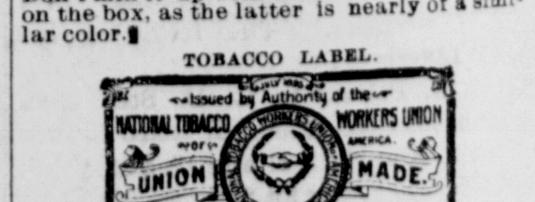

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.

This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

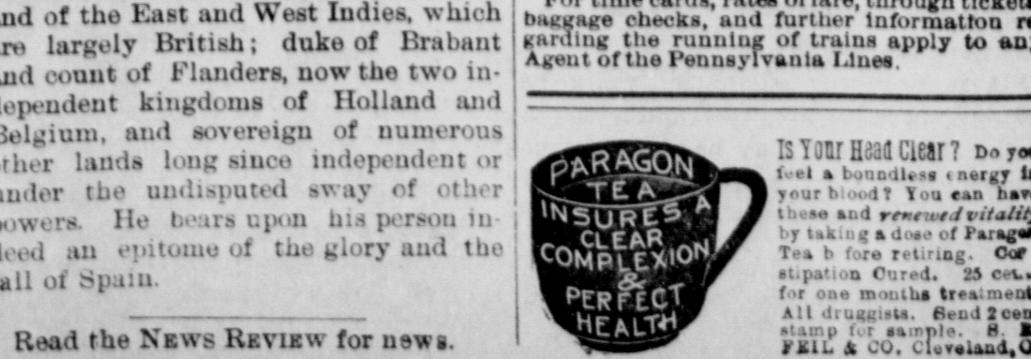

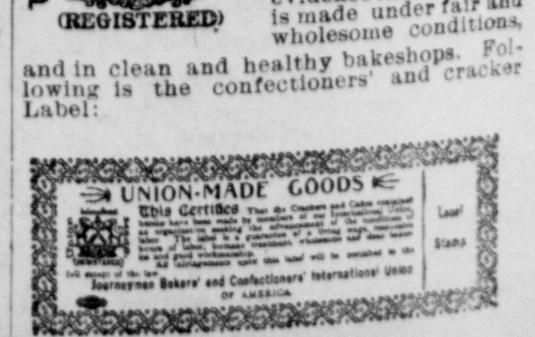

TOBACCO LABEL.

The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all pure tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' Union. It is printed on white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. HELPING THE COMPANY

Trades Council Last Night
Donated $50

TO THE NEW GLASS CONCERN

And Advised All Local Unions to Help the Cause—The Council Will Turn Out In Parade on Labor Day—New Delegates Were Seated.

There was a large attendance last evening at Trades council and some important business was transacted.

After the minutes were read and approved the credential committee reported upon the following names: Harvey McHenry, Sheridan McGavern, A. Cope, carpenters; Walter Bettridge, dippers; Joseph Gibbons, No. 22. The members were obligated and took their seats in the council.

Thomas Mumford and Rudy Ebeling, a committee who are soliciting funds for the proposed co-operative glass plant were present and asked the financial support of the council to aid them in their work. The council donated $50, and the delegates were asked to present the matter to the various locals and solicit funds. J. J. Weisend was appointed treasurer to take charge of all funds so contributed, and turn them over to the soliciting committee.

The council decided to turn out in a body on Labor day and will meet at their hall at 8 a. m. The delegates were instructed to ask each local to make a display in the parade and endeavor to have as many features as possible.

The council then transacted a great deal of business of a private nature and adjourned.

HANDSOME NEW CHURCH

Will Be Built For Rev. J. H. Norris In Pittsburgh.

Plans and specifications for the new church to be erected by the First Pentecostal congregation, Rev. J. H. Norris, pastor, were submitted to contractors yesterday for bids.

A lot 66x165 feet has been secured at Sycamore and Stanwix streets, Pittsburgh, on which the new building will be located. The new church will be 62x119 feet in dimensions. It will have a balcony entrance 36 feet wide, which, with a tower on each corner of the street, will give the building an imposing and handsome appearance. The auditorium will have a seating capacity of 600. The lecture room and galleries will seat 500 persons, and as these can be thrown into the auditorium, the total seating capacity of the church will be 1,100. On the same floor will be a library room and pastor's studio.

Reverend Norris, who has been attending campmeeting at Spring Grove, has returned to Pittsburgh.

And Now Believes His Watch Was Stolen.

Last evening a man well under the influence of liquor was walking along Fifth street with his watch chain hanging from its fastening, but without a watch attached. Several men who knew the man stopped him and asked for the watch. He searched his clothes and being unable to find it said it was stolen.

The matter has not been reported to the police.

FINE WORK.

Mercer Is Doing Wonders In the Field.

Winnie Mercer is making a great record at short for the Washington team, and in yesterday's game made three runs, three hits and had six put-outs and six assists without an error. He also had two stolen bases.

If he can keep up that kind of work it is probable he will be given a regular place on the infield.

On the River.

Heavy rains at all points up the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers will cause a slight rise in the streams. This will do no more than uphold the present good packet stage. At present there is a good river between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati for the packets to operate. At Davis island dam last night the stage was 4.2 feet and falling.

The Queen City went down last night, and the Avalon is due down tonight. The Cummings and Bedford are due up this evening and down tomorrow. The Keystone State is up tomorrow noon.

CUBA UNDER PEACE.

MINISTER PALMA ON THE FUTURE OF THE ISLAND.

SAYS FIRST WORK AFTER PEACE IS FEEDING OF NATIVES—THINKS CUBANS MAY WANT ANNEXATION ULTIMATELY—BELIEVES SPANIARDS SHOULD HAVE NO VOTE ON ANNEXATION.

Tomas Estrada Palma, delegate at large of the Cuban republic, said recently at the office of the Cuban junta in New York city, when asked what steps would be taken by his government upon the declaration of peace: "The first thing to be done by the Cuban patriots in America after the blockade has been raised will be to send immediate relief to the starving Cubans in the field. Money which otherwise would have been spent for arms and ammunition will be devoted to the purchase of food, clothing and medicine for the Cuban soldiers and for their families.

"Without raising the issue of who should govern Cuba, we feel that we will have the hearty co-operation of the United States government in this matter of relieving starvation. That comes first, as a humanitarian necessity. The relief will be sent immediately, with the permission of the American government, and, so far as the Cuban republic is concerned, for the present we will follow the custom of old by turning the swords into plowshares and try to get down to actual as well as theoretical peace as speedily as possible."

"What will the government of the republic of Cuba do as a government?" was asked. "The leading men of that government, from President Massoud, have implicit confidence in the declaration of the United States government that it went to war not for the acquisition of Cuba, but to free the island for the Cubans. Personally I believe that it is only a question of time when the people of Cuba will wish annexation, but at the present time there are many, especially among those who went into the field against the Spaniards, whose aim and ambition have been independence. Any policy of the United States which attempted to force annexation before the people were ready might cause considerable internal trouble."

"How soon after the declaration of peace do you think the question of annexation or independence could be brought up?" was asked. "It may take several months for the Spanish government to remove its soldiers from the island. After the Spanish soldiers have gone away there will be left only about 120,000 Spaniards. Many of these might renounce allegiance to the Spanish government. But assuming that there would remain 100,000 Spaniards on the island, that is a small number in comparison with the 1,200,000 native Cubans. While the Spanish troops are being removed I think that the United States government would be wise in consulting unofficially the wishes of the large native population. The American provisional government, which will no doubt be of a military character, can do much toward strengthening the gratitude which the native Cubans already feel for the United States for having freed them from the Spanish yoke. In what way the United States should try to get the opinion of the people of Cuba, whether by popular election or otherwise, is one of the problems which it will have to solve. But no matter in what way the American government goes about it it will always find the native Cubans not only willing but anxious to help the Americans in the solution of the problem."

"If there should be an election on the subject of annexation or independence, do you think the 100,000 Spaniards on the island ought to be allowed to vote?" "Certainly not," replied Mr. Palma. "It is true that they are part of the Cuban population, but their interests have never been with the Cubans. Only on one condition should any native Spaniard be allowed to vote in Cuba on any question, and that is that he should publicly renounce his allegiance to Spain."

"How about protecting the property of the Spaniards in Cuba?" "The honor and dignity of the native Cuban government would compel it to respect the property and persons of all inhabitants, even of the Spaniards." "How about the liberation of prisoners for political offenses?" "That will be the next desire on the part of the native Cubans after food, clothing and medicines have been supplied to the needy. The liberation of political prisoners is something which should come so quickly that we feel confident that the temporary American government on the island will liberate them all before the question of annexation or independence is brought up."

"How about the retention of Spanish officers in civil offices in Cuba?" "The native Cubans, who are as ten to one compared with the Spaniards numerically, would be much more easily governed by anybody but Spaniards. They would have very little faith in the profession of allegiance on the part of a Spanish officeholder."

"And as we know it will be the desire of the American government to rule Cuba temporarily with as much tranquillity as possible, we feel confident that after peace has been declared the temporary American government in Cuba will put men in office whose sympathy is with the native Cubans and who stand for the policy of liberty for which the American government went to war. By dismissing from office every native Spaniard and putting in office conservative Cubans all traces of Spanish government, so hateful to the native Cubans, will be removed. We have every confidence that the United States government will eventually turn over the island of Cuba to the people free and independent, and personally I believe that it will not be long after that that Cuba will be one of the many proud states of the Union."—New York Sun.

Mrs. Cleveland's Courtesy.

The following pretty story is told of Mrs. Grover Cleveland: At one of the public receptions given at the White House an old lady who was drawn up in the line that was pushing its way forward to shake hands with the president's wife dropped her handkerchief just before getting to Mrs. Cleveland. She was too old and rheumatic to stoop down and recover it, and those back of her in the line were too intent upon getting the one fleeting glimpse possible of the mistress of the White House to notice the old lady's loss, and the handkerchief was trampled upon roughly.

Just before the old lady reached her Mrs. Cleveland stepped out of her place and deftly picked up the handkerchief, tucked it in her dress and, taking her own fresh one, which was of the most delicate, dainty lace, smilingly handed it to the old lady with the sweet remark, "Please take mine, and when you get home send it back to me, will you?" And when the handkerchief came back to her Mrs. Cleveland returned that of the owner, freshly laundered, lying on the top of a beautiful box of rosebuds that came from the White House conservatory.

An Accommodating Neighbor.

Not long back Mr. X. moved into a new house, which had not before been occupied. The bell wires were rather stiff, and in consequence the bells gave no uncertain sound. This was particularly the case with the doorbell, whose clangor disturbed the whole house.

Mr. X. is a man of sensitive nerves. The tremendous jangle of the doorbell made him shudder, so he wrote in chalk above the handle of the doorpost, "Pull gently."

About 9 that evening there was a violent ringing. Somebody tugged at the bell as if he were going to pull it out by the roots. The noise was terrific. X. himself ran to the door in a rage and found his friend Z.

"What the Dickens do you mean by ringing that way?" exclaimed X. indignantly. "Don't you see what's written there?"

"Yes," answered Z. "I do see—that's why I pulled so hard."

X. looked at the writing and saw, "Pull urgently." A passing wag had added the "ur." X. has now muffed the bell.—London Telegraph.

NOTICE OF THE SALE OF BONDS.

OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK, EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, August 4th, 1898.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this office, until 12 o'clock noon.

Monday, September 5th, 1898, for the purchase with accrued interest at delivery of fifteen (15) "Road Improvement Bonds" of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, bearing date of the 1st day of May, 1898. Said bonds to be numbered from one (1) to fifteen (15) both inclusive and shall become due and payable in 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19 years from the date of issue according to the number thereof, each bond being for the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), and bearing interest at the rate of four (4) per centum, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of November and May of each year, for which interest proper coupons are to be attached, both principal and interest being payable at the office of the Treasurer of said city.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of improving the roads leading into the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, and in pursuance of Sections 2335 and 2337 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Ohio, and an ordinance of the Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, passed July 26th, 1898.

Bidders will be required to state in writing and in figures, the gross amount they will pay for the bonds bid for in addition to the accrued interest at the date of delivery, and no bid will be accepted for less than par and accrued interest at the date of delivery.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check on some National Bank, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500), payable to the order of the Clerk of said city, as a guarantee that if the bid is accepted the bonds will be promptly paid for when delivered.

The City Council reserves the right to accept or reject any and all bids.

All proposals should be addressed to J. N. HANLEY, City Clerk.

Published in the East Liverpool News Review, August 4, 11, 18 and 25, 1898.

SPECIAL ELECTION NOTICE.

THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, are hereby notified that the question of issuing bonds of said city to amount of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) for the purpose of obtaining money to purchase a site and erect thereon buildings suitable for the purpose of a public hospital, as provided for in the ordinance passed by the Council of said city, July 26th, 1898, entitled "An ordinance providing for an election to determine the question of issuing bonds for the purpose of purchasing a suitable site and erecting thereon buildings for the purpose of a city hospital," will be submitted to the electors of the corporation at a special election to be held on August 20th, 1898, between the hours of 5:30 a. m. and 5:30 p. m., and at the following voting places:

First ward—Robert Hall's office.

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bonafide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. and Mrs. Poland of this city, yesterday moved to Hollow Rock.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Money-penny, of California Hollow, a son.

The boys of the Columbian club and their friends will dance this evening.

Mrs. James Johnson, of Basil avenue, will leave tomorrow for a few weeks' stay at Mackinac.

Mrs. Hugh Maley, who has been in Alliance several days undergoing an operation, is expected home this evening.

This morning 33 baskets of ware were sent to Allegheny. It was the largest shipment of ware from the station for several weeks.

The Sebring Pottery company this morning made a large shipment of ware to Portland, Ore. The shipment almost filled a car.

Business is very slow at the office of the township trustees, and it has been several days since they have had a new application for aid.

Last evening A. Ditmore, field bishop of the Church of the Living God, preached in Sixth street between Jackson and Jefferson streets.

The towboat B. D. Wood passed up this morning, towing one empty flat. The boat was making slow time, as one of its engines was broken.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rinehart, Seventh street, was taken seriously ill last evening, and is still in a precarious condition.

This morning two lengths of pipe were placed in the Broadway sewer on the wharf. A workman from the city engineer's office did the work.

Nellis, the young son of Officer Mahony, who ran a wire nail in his right foot last Monday, is now able to be out. For two days he was unable to walk.

Next Tuesday a number of chicken fights will take place. The birds are owned by parties in this city, and considerable money is being placed on the result.

James Fox and Miss Lulu Millsack were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Ravine street. Mr. and Mrs. Fox will go to housekeeping immediately in this city.

Paul Rhoades, of the freight depot who sprained his back recently, will return to his work next week. As he is 37 years old the injury affected him more than was first thought.

James Irwin, of Illinois, is spending a few days in the city the guest of Deputy Sheriff Thomas Creighton. The men were school mates, and have not been together for a number of years.

The street force this morning began work cleaning the sidewalks in Eighth and Jethro streets. The pavements were covered in many places with dirt, and were sadly in need of cleaning.

A portion of the campers who have been spending the summer at a point opposite Walker have pulled up stakes and gone home. There is still one camp left but it will break up within the next two weeks.

Dr. J. C. Taggart and wife, Mrs. J. S. Wilson and Mrs. R. B. Stevenson returned last evening from Saratoga, where they attended the national convention of the Young Peoples' societies of the U. P. church.

No arrests were made during the night or this morning, and during the night not one person was so drunk that they needed arrest. Mayor Bough came to his office early this morning, but as there was nothing for him to do he went to the Township Line picnic.

The street force are this afternoon filling holes and making gutters in McKinnon addition. The repairs were badly needed, as there has been a great deal of complaint from teamsters to the effect that it was almost impossible to get along some of the streets with a horse.

SHIRT WAISTS.

ARE determined to sell every shirt waist--but one way to do it, namely, to make the price so low that people will buy. A lot of shirt waists that were 50 and 59c, and good values at that, for 25c, but a few cents more than you pay for having them laundered.

A lot of dark colored shirt waists that were excellent values at 50c, for 39c.

The 75 and 79c shirt waists at 50c, the 98c and $1 waists at 65c, and 90c for the $1.25 waists.

Wrappers.

Still a few of the odds and ends in wrappers at 39c.

Will offer the $1 wrappers this week at 75c, the $1.25 wrappers at $1, the $2 wrappers at $1.40. We can save you money on wrappers.

Separate Skirts.

A nice, clean stock of these, but we must have the room they occupy, and are making prices on them which should close them out in a short time.

A black brocade skirt at 75c. A lot of $1.98 skirts for $1.50. A lot of $5 skirts for $3.98. A lot of $7.50 skirts for $6. A lot of $10 skirts for $8. A lot of $12.50 skirts for $10.

Crash Skirts.

Are offering the crash skirts at very low prices.

The 89c ones at 50c. The $1.25 ones at 90c. The $1.50 ones at 98c. The $2 and $2.25 ones at $1.25. A few crash suits at exactly half price. Also a few crash jackets that were $2.25, will close them out at $1.25. A few P. K. suits and skirts at low prices.

Summer Wash Goods.

All colored lawns and dimities at half price.

The 8c ones for 4c. The 10c ones for 5c. The 15c ones for 7c. The 25c ones for 12c. Organdie suit patterns that were $4.50 for $2.25.

New Fall Dress Goods.

A little early perhaps but you may want goods for a new skirt or suit, if so we believe we can suit you, as we have some of the choice things of the season here.

New Black Goods.

New crepons. It is almost certain that the demand for crepons will be greater than ever this fall. We have them at all prices, from $1.00 to $2.75 per yard.

New Poplins.

At $1, $1.25, $1.35 and $2.75 per yard. New black serges and henriettas.

The Many Rich Prizes

Captured by Uncle Sam didn't drop into his hat through sheer luck--strength and shrewd judgment won them. Business successes are won in the same way. It isn't luck that enables us to offer you the most expert scientific optical service to be found anywhere, at extremely low prices. It is full and perfect equipment, investment and enterprise. We employ a first class Oculist, a medical doctor especially educated in the treatment of the eye. When you come to us you take no chances, but are sure of first-class service. Examination free of charge. Why not have the best?
